The flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Edward and Mary Wiley by their daughter, Miss Lilla Wiley.

Howard Craven died suddenly last Thursday. The Burial Office will be said in the church on Monday at 10:30 A.M. Until then the body will rest at the Hackman Funeral Home, 905 Lehigh Avenue. Internment will be at Hillside Cemetery. Of your charity, pray for him and for the family. May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, rest in peace. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Howard Craven by the Dorcas Society.

The server at the early Eucharist is William W. Ford, III; at the Sung Eucharist John Keppol and Alan Keppol serve. Ushers are Mr. Mangen and Mr. Taylor, vestrymen.

We invoke the Holy Spirit today upon the meeting of the Convention of the Diocese of Pennsylvania to be held Monday and Tuesday at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square. The prayer for Convention is on page 36.

Those who make offerings for the United Thank Offering of the Women of the Church are asked to put the offerings in the blue envelopes provided in the pews.

David H. Moore, Jr. was elected last Sunday to the presidency of the Northeast Convocation of Young People's Fellowships. This is an honor for our parish.

The Visiting Committee meets Friday night at 4627 Benner St., the home of Mrs. T. Settle.

The mothers of Boy Scout Troop #140 will sponsor a Square Dance Saturday at 8:00 P.M. Adults donate 75¢ and teenagers 50¢, please.

The G.F.S. will participate in the service for the diocesan group at St. Mark's Church from 11:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. Saturday.

Flowers at the Altar today are given by Mrs. John Smith in memory of William Upton. The flowers are placed beside the Altar in order to show the triptych fully.

Every one of you is invited to a simple "coffee hour" in the parish house right after the service. You need not drink coffee nor stay an hour, but do come. The clergy will greet you there.

Servers at the Sung Eucharist today are David H. Moore, Jr., crucifer and William W. Ford, III, the server at the Altar.

We are pleased to have as our guest preacher today the Rev'd William H. Hazelett, known to many of you as a resident of Wissinoming. He will shortly begin his work as curate of St. Paul's Church in Burlington, Vermont, the largest parish in that diocese. He also assists with the work of a Deacon today, by reading the Gospel and administering the Chalice.

Virgil Fox, renowned organist, will play at St. Mark's Church, 4442 Frankford Ave. at eight o'clock tonight. You are invited.

Wednesday is an Ember Day. There will be Holy Communion at ten o'clock.

On Saturday we shall be host to the Corporate Communion and breakfast of the Northeast Convocation of the Y.P.F. at eight o'clock in the morning.

A note for those who may be tempted to "skip church" to get an early start for a Sunday drive: "Some put their trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the Name of the Lord our God." (Psalm 20:7) We also point out verse 2 of that same Psalm - "Send thee help from the sanctuary". We have an eight o'clock service for Sunday drivers.

A red Burse and Veil is blessed today at eight o'clock. It is given as a thankoffering.

Flowers are given today by Mr. Alva O. Lewis in memory of his parents, Will and Mary Lewis.

The Book of Common Prayer provides three Exhortations and directs that the first (page 85) be used, among other times, on Trinity Sunday. It will be clearer if you follow it in the Prayer Book as it is read.

The Church Year may be divided into two semesters, the first of our Lord, and the second of the Church. Having completed the re-telling of the mighty acts of redemption performed by our Lord in the season of Advent to Ascension, we arrived at the fulfillment of his promise—Pentecost and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. Empowered with divine Breath the Body of Christ, the Church, moves on to its wonderful task of sanctification. The long Trinity season will wear the color that Nature wears - green, the color of life. The Church now applies the gifts of Christ's Passion to estranged humanity. The Church never dies nor are we a seasonal activity, for to leave Christ behind is death indeed.

The Summer Schedule will begin July 3rd and continue until September 4th. The late service will be advanced to 10:00 A.M. at that time and will include Church School.

Next Saturday, June 18th, the Dorcas Society will sponsor its annual Lawn Fete with Dinner. The proceeds of this day pay the expense of the parish picnic.

The Parish Picnic will be held at Holiday Lake, New Jersey, Saturday, June 25th. A bus will leave from the church at 10:00 A.M. Those who are not members of the Church School are asked for $1.00 to help pay expenses.

LOOKING AHEAD We hope that you will be able to save Wednesday, August 24th for the celebration of St. Bartholomew's Day. Plans are being made for fine worship and a good time.

Flowers are given today in memory of Lillian Jennings by two of her friends, Mrs. Gene Connor and Miss Agnes Dulisse.

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Howard Craven by his sons, Richard and Robert.

May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated on Wednesday at ten o'clock as it has been done for the past six months. Wednesday also happens to be St. Alban's Day, commemorating the first martyr of the English Church. As the Deacon, St. Stephen was the first martyr (protomartyr) of the whole Christian Church, so St. Alban, a convert, was the first in England to die for the Faith. The Anglican Communion has many parishes dedicated to him. We remember him for his courage and loyalty.

The annual Parish Picnic will be held at Holiday Lake, New Jersey. A bus will leave from the church next Saturday at ten o'clock. Those who are not teachers or students in the Church School are asked for one dollar to help pay expenses.

Please save Wednesday, August 24th for us. We are planning fine worship, supper and fun for St. Bartholomew's Day.

The official Independence Day service will be held at historic old Christ Church on Second Street above Market at ten o'clock July 4th. Exercises in Independence Square follow at eleven o'clock. It is shameful that so few Philadelphians bother to honor the day, leaving it to visitors. Will you go this year?

An infant son was born to Mrs. Edward Grabus, (nee Joan Wisman) last Thursday. Our thanksgivings and best wishes!

Our schedule of services changes next week as we begin our summer schedule. The hours will be 8:00 and 10:00 A.M. The 9:45 hour will be combined with the late service. This will pertain until after the first Sunday of September. MAKE A NOTE OF IT!

The Y.P.F. does not meet on Sunday evenings during the summer. The next event on their schedule will be a Corporate Communion Saturday, August 6th (Transfiguration) after which a trip to Holiday Lake is planned.

Wednesday of this week is ST. PETER'S DAY (Prayer Book, page 244). There will be HOLY COMMUNION at 10:00 A.M. The celebrations of the EUCHARIST on Wednesdays and Holy Days will be suspended for the month of July only. They will begin again August 6th, the Transfiguration of our Lord.

Our Patronal Festival will be celebrated Wednesday, August 24th. You will hear later of the festivities. Plan to come.

Next Sunday the late service (10:00 A.M.) will be the Sung Eucharist as usual, but we shall have a guest preacher. Come and hear him.

The official Union Religious Service for Independence Day will be at old Christ Church, the church of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. See the notice on the bulletin board in the narthex.

The painting of the Parish House is progressing nicely thanks to the hard work of a few of our men. This has been long needed and already improves the looks of the upper floor. We like God's House to be attractive.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of David, Walter and Margaret Clausen, brother and parents of Mrs. Violet Johnson.

We are privileged to have with us today
the Rev'd Charles Raymond Summers, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Plainfield, New Jersey, who will preach the Sermon and assist the Rector at the Altar. Fr. Summers and the Rector were friends in their undergraduate days at Ursinus College. After his graduation from "P.D.S.", Fr. Summers was Curate at St.
Chrysostom's Church in Chicago before coming to St. Andrew's, Plainfield. We are happy to have Mrs. Summers with us, too.

Use your Prayer Book on "the Fourth":
page 263 gives you the Collect for the Day.

Go to church on Independence Day at Christ Church, Second Street above Market, where so many of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence worshipped. What a privilege it is for Episcopalians in Philadelphia to have at hand the church that played a part in Colonial America. To that church tomorrow will come many people from all parts of the country to honor the Day.
The Service is at ten o'clock. Will you be there?

The celebrations of the Holy Eucharist on Wednesdays and Holy Days will be suspended for the month of July only. The next service will be on the Feast of the Transfiguration of our Lord, August 6th.

The Visiting Committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Bernice Gillies, 4218 Howell Street on Friday, July 8th.

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Elizabeth Cook by her daughter, Mrs. William Hazelett.

Flowers are given by the Visiting Committee in memory of Rachel Annesley, mother of Mrs. William Most, who entered into life July 5, 1960.

May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace.

We introduce to you Mr. Edward Sykes, a Senior at Philadelphia Divinity School, who will read Morning Prayer on the three Sundays the Rector is on vacation. Mr. Sykes is a Candidate for Holy Orders in the Diocese of New Jersey and will be ordained next year. He serves as Lector today.

The Women's Guild meets Tuesday at noon. All members are urged to attend.

During the absence of the Rector and Senior Warden, the Junior Warden, Mr. Joseph Wharton, will be able to procure the services of a Priest in an emergency. He lives at 4500 Comly Street and his telephone number is PI 3-5048.

Wednesdays and Holy Days will not be observed during July.

Patronal Festival: Wednesday, August 24. Morning Prayer, Holy Communion, Evening Prayer and a picnic supper will mark the day.

O ye Servants of the Lord, bless ye the Lord: praise him, and magnify him forever.

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Amos and Amanda McLaughlin by their daughter, Miss Margaret McLaughlin.

We are fortunate to have the services of MR. EDWARD SYKES during the vacation of the Rector. Mr. Sykes is a Senior at the Philadelphia Divinity School and comes from the Diocese of New Jersey. We are indeed grateful to him for helping us. The Rector leaves the conduct of Morning Prayer in his hands with full confidence.

The Rector is preaching this morning at the Sung Eucharist in St. Andrew's Church, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Wednesdays and Holy Days will not be observed during July.

Patronal Festival: Wednesday, August 24.
A full day of celebration. Mark it down.

Please note the succinct article on our "bounden duty" in column 1 on page 2. Also, please read the short but excellent statement of the Biblical necessity of Baptism in column 4 of page 2.

"Give, and it shall be given unto you;
good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again."

Rector:
The Rev'd Joseph Owen Gross

This is the last Sunday that Mr. Edward Sykes will conduct Morning Prayer for us. We are grateful to him for his services during the Rector's vacation. Mr. Sykes will begin his senior year at Philadelphia Divinity School in September.

There will be no service on Wednesday this week.

Wednesday evening, August 3rd, is the night parents visit Troop #140 encamped at Treasure Island. See the Committee for details and transportation.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated on Saturday, the Feast of the Transfiguration of our Lord, August 6th. The hour is 10:00 A.M. The Y.P.F. made plans earlier in the summer to make this a Corporate Communion. They will also go on a swim party after the service.

Next Sunday at 8:00 and 10:00 A.M.--- HOLY COMMUNION.

The Patronal Festival: Wednesday, August 24th. Two services and a picnic supper.

Children below the age of Confirmation go out to a class during the hymn before the sermon.

O LET THE EARTH BLESS THE LORD: YEA, LET IT
PRAISE HIM, AND MAGNIFY HIM FOR EVER.
O YE CHILDREN OF MEN, BLESS YE THE LORD:
PRAISE HIM, AND MAGNIFY HIM FOR EVER.

Prayer.

Wednesday of next week, August 24th, is ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S DAY. The services are

10:00 A.M. HOLY COMMUNION

6:00 P.M. EVENSONG AND SERMON

A picnic supper in the rectory garden will follow Evensong. Please return your reservation card. This is our summer festival.

Next Sunday the Rector will conduct Evening Prayer at Leamy Home, Rounfort Ave. and Boyer St. at 4:45 P.M. He would like to have some singers accompany him, not necessarily restricted to choir members. As guests, you would be invited to stay for supper. Also, an offer of an automobile would be appreciated.

The summer schedule with the late service at ten o'clock will be in effect until Labor Day weekend, after which the regular schedule will be resumed. During this time, unconfirmed children of the Church School leave the church at the sermon time for their own lesson in the parish house.

Boy Scout Troop # 140 will have a family picnic on Sunday, August 28th. See the leaders for details.

"JESUS SAID UNTO HER, WOMAN, WHERE ARE THOSE THINE ACCUSERS? HATH NO MAN CONDEMNED THEE? SHE SAID, NO MAN, LORD. AND JESUS SAID UNTO HER, NEITHER DO I CONDEMN THEE: GO, AND SIN NO MORE."

The flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Charles Hagy by Mrs. M. Hagy. Flowers are also given in memory of James Dodds by Mr. and Mrs. A. Dodds. Flowers are given in memory of Susan Kardevan by Mrs. A.A. Stearn.

Today begins the fall season with the standard schedule in effect. Church School is at 9:45 A.M. and children at the 11:00 A.M. service are not dismissed for the sermon.

HOLY BAPTISM today at 12:00 Noon.

The Fifth International Conference on Spiritual Healing will be held at St. Stephen's Church, 10th St. below Market, from Monday through Wednesday. The full schedule appears on the bulletin board in the narthex. Why not investigate?

Monday evening at 7:30 P.M. the Northeast Convocation of the Y.F.F. will hold an executive meeting in the Parish House.

Wednesday at 10:00 A.M. HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated. This is a weekly service.

On Michaelmas, Thursday, September 29, a special Eucharist will be held at 10:00. Children below school age will be blessed and all mothers are urged to attend.

On Friday evening the men's shuffleboard activity begins again.

When the Rector cannot be reached by telephone, please call the Senior Warden, Mr. A.O. Lewis, at JE 3-8096. May we also suggest that 1:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. is the least likely time to find the Rector in. Many evenings also, he is at meetings. The best time is before noon and after 11:00 P.M. Unlike your physician, there is no secretary in the rectory to take calls at all hours. Calls late at night are always acceptable, especially in emergency.

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Charles Hagy by Mrs. Hagy.

Flowers are given in memory of George and Josephine Young by Miss Marjorie Young, their daughter.

There are flowers from the Funeral of Mary Bowen Smith which was conducted in the church yesterday.

Mrs. Laura Snyder departed this life last week and her funeral was conducted on Thursday.

Charles Roth, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roth (Christine Michalski) was buried August 25th.

May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The class for children will be held on the lower floor of the Parish House today because the upper floor is in the process of painting.

The VESTRY meets Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the Parish House.

The B.S.M. #140 Court of Honor will be held Thursday night.

The VISITING COMMITTEE will meet at 4626 Benner St., the home of Miss Dorothy Beaton, on Friday night.

SAINT BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE, MARTYR

St. Bartholomew is the same apostle whom the Fourth Gospel calls Nathanael. We identify Nathanael with Bartholomew, for otherwise there would be thirteen apostles in the New Testament list. His full name was probably "Nathanael Bar Tolmai" (Nathanael, son of Tolmai). St. Philip brought him to Jesus. Our Lord had seen him under a fig tree in meditation and called him an Israelite in whom was no guile. He was a man who asked questions, not to trick Jesus as did the scribes, but simply and honestly to learn.

Legend says that he was a missionary to India and Arabia, but at least he probably preached the Gospel in Armenia, north of the Caspian Sea. He carried St. Matthew's Gospel with him. He suffered the cruel martyrdom of being flayed alive for the Christian Faith.

The two large shields on the triptych display his attributes - the fig branch, the flaying knife and the book on which is inscribed the reference to him from John 1:45-51.

In the roll of Thine apostles
One there stands, BARTHOLOMEW,
He for whom today we offer,
Year by year, our praises due:
How he toiled for thee and suffered None on earth can now record;
All his saintly life is hidden
In the knowledge of his Lord.

- John Ellerton, 1871

ST. BARTHOLOMEW

august twenty-fourth

the book, st. matthew's gospel, which he used.
flaying knives show manner of his martyrdom.

All praise for thine Apostle, the faithful,
pure, and true,
Whom underneath the fig tree thine eye
all-seeing knew.
Like him may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed,
That thy abiding presence our longing
sould may feed.

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Anna Howarth by her daughter, Mrs. Fred Gutekunst.

Kenneth C. Dolbow and Catherine Massaro were united in Holy Matrimony at the Altar yesterday at eleven o'clock. Our prayers go with God's blessing on this union.

Young people are invited today to a district meeting of the youth of the Diocese to be held at All Saints' Church on Crescentville Road overlooking Tacony Park. Dress warmly and informally; girls bring head covering; everyone bring box supper and 25¢. We must leave from our church at 2:30 P.M. and will return about 7:00 P.M. We want a good showing from this parish.

The Executive Committee of the North-east Convocation of the Y.L.F. will meet Monday evening at 7:30 P.M. in the Buchanan Building of Trinity Parish at 601 Longshore Road in Oxford.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated on Wednesday at 10:00 A.M. as always.

The Vestry will meet in the parish house office Thursday evening at 8:00. Men, note the earlier hour.

The mothers of Troop #140 will again sponsor a dance for teenagers on Friday evening in the parish house.

We have had our Thanksgiving service at 10:00 A.M. in recent years. This seems to conflict with parades, games, etc. We will offer Holy Communion this year and a choice of hours: either 8:00 A.M. or 10:00 A.M. Please express your preference to the Rector and he will set the hour according to the majority choice. We would like to decide upon it before November 1.

November will be a significant month; on the 7th we shall elect a Bishop Coadjutor and on the 8th a President. Both will need our prayerful attention.

The Northeast Y.P.F. will attend the concert of the Frankford High School Choir this evening at St. Mark's Church, Frankford.
We shall meet at our church at 7:30 P.M. The concert starts at 7:45. The public is welcome.
The Y.P.F. meeting and recreation will follow the concert.

The Vestry has been adding pads to the kneeling benches as they are made. Thus far most of the Gospel side of the church has been outfitted. As the pads add to your comfort, it is hoped that the correct posture for prayer, kneeling upright, will be observed.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Emily Hong by her daughter, Mrs. Anna Hong.

Advent opens with the annual Corporate Communion and breakfast for all confirmed men and boys in the parish.

The Exhortation is read today (page 85) in accordance with the rubric.

A new violet Burse and Veil was blessed on Thanksgiving Day and is used for the first time this morning. The chi rho or monogram of Christ adorns it. The set is given by Mrs. Fred Wismann in memory of her father and was made by Mrs. Samuel Faunce. This welcome gift replaces the set which is showing signs of wear.

The Instructed Eucharist will be celebrated for children in the Parish House at a temporary altar. This is not a mock service, but a genuine Holy Communion. Any CONFIRMED person in attendance may commune. This will be a monthly observance on the last Sunday of the month at 9:45 A.M. Its purpose is to bring up the children in the service they will partake of after Confirmation, by which time they should know it well.

Anyone who missed Thanksgiving services and wishes to contribute to the annual offering to Episcopal Hospital may use the green and white envelopes.

Wednesday is St. Andrew's Day from which Advent is reckoned. There will be Holy Communion at 10:00 A.M.

The Visiting Committee meets Friday at the home of Miss Grace Keighley, 6229 Ardwick St.

There will be a Scout Dance on Saturday evening in the Parish House.

The I.P.F. will visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Moore, Jr. this evening. We shall meet at the church at 7:30.

Corporate Communion of the Dorcas Society will be held Sunday, December 11 at 8:00 A.M.

THE TRUTH ABOUT SANTA CLAUS

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. Do not let "sophisticated" children tell you he does not exist. He is different, however, from all the production-line copies you see about you in this season.

There was a Bishop and he lived in a place called Myra in Asia Minor sixteen hundred years ago. This Bishop Nicholas was loved for his kindness to children who were mistreated. He went about the streets in his red-purple robes looking for the needy. He has always been loved for his kindness. In England alone there are about four hundred churches dedicated to him. He has become part of the spirit of Christmas. Dutch children in America called him "Sante Klaas" from which we get Santa Claus. St. Nicholas was one of God's servants; his day is December 6.

There will be a "Town Meeting" at Lincoln High School Tuesday evening from eight to ten o'clock. The subject is one close to the interests of our neighborhood: "What is the future of Northeast Philadelphia?" Representatives of the City Planning Commission will be there. The public is invited.

HOLY COMMUNION each Wednesday at ten o'clock.

The Vestry meets Thursday at eight o'clock in the Parish House office.

The Church School class taught by Mrs. William Most will have a party in the Parish House Saturday evening.

Next Sunday at eight o'clock the Dorcas Society will have its Corporate Communion.

Copies of the "CHURCH NEWS" are available at the door for those who do not subscribe. Copies of the "ANGLICAN WORLD" are also available. Please take and read them.

departed this life last week. The Burial Office was said at his home last Wednesday.
MAY THEIR SOULS, AND THE SOULS OF ALL THE FAITH-FUL DEPARTED, THROUGH THE MERCY OF GOD, REST IN PEACE. REST ETERNAL GRANT UNTO THEM, O LORD.

The annual Children's Christmas Pageant will be held next Sunday evening at seven-thirty. The rehearsal will be held Friday at four o'clock.
All participants please be there. Participants should arrive one hour in advance of the performance next Sunday night.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are the winter Ember Days, days of supplication for the Sacred Ministry of the Church. Holy Communion will be celebrated Wednesday at ten o'clock.

The eight o'clock service today includes the Corporate Communion of the Dorcas Society.
Contributions will be received today and next Sunday for flowers to adorn the Altar on Christmas Day. We would like to suspend personal memorials on Christmas Day, but they may be had as usual the Sunday after Christmas.

Mr. William Logan and Mr. Herbert Dyson have been appointed to fill unfilled terms of office on the Vestry. Congratulations!

"PREPARE YE THE WAY OF THE LORD"

Isaiah 40:3

The annual Children's Christmas Pageant will be presented this evening at seven-thirty o'clock in the church. Those who are participating should be here at 6:30 to allow enough time to don your costumes. We invite you all to attend this offering of our children.

The Pastoral Letter of the House of Bishops is read today at eleven o'clock in accordance with Canon 45 Sec. 2f. It is a forthright statement on the historic faith of the Church.

The Women's Guild will have its Christmas dinner in the Parish House on Tuesday. All members are invited.

Wednesday is St. Thomas' Day. Holy Communion will be said at ten o'clock.

The Christmas Party of the Boy Scouts will be Thursday evening.

The Cub Pack meets Friday evening.

Saturday is the Eve of Christmas.

The Carol Service will start at 10:30 P.M. The midnight Holy Eucharist will be sung at 11:00 P.M.

Sunday is Christmas Day. Holy Communion will be offered at all services: eight o'clock and eleven o'clock and at nine forty-five in the Parish House.

Contributions will be received again today for flowers to adorn the Altar on Christmas Day. No memorials will be made. Contributions may be made at the door of the church in the basket.

The Church School Christmas Party will be held on Holy Innocents' Day at seven-thirty in the evening.

Church Kalendars are available today. Members of the Dorcas Society can sell you one or more. The Rector wishes there would be a Kalendar in every home as they are a great help to him through the year.

"...every tongue should confess that JESUS CHRIST is Lord..
—the Epistle for today

The flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Beatrice Settle by her daughter, Mrs. Irene Smiles.

HOLY BAPTISM will be administered today at 12:30 P.M. after the Sung Eucharist. Roger Alvin, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Alvin Brown, will become a member of the Body of Christ.

Holy Communion is offered each Wednesday at 10:00 A.M.

Friday is the feast of the Epiphany, the Twelfth Day of Christmastide which celebrates the showing of Christ to the nations in the persons of the Magi.
Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10.
This concludes the Church's observance of Christmas.

The Visiting Committee will meet Friday night at the home of Mrs. Albert Strunk, 8213 Narvon St.

The annual Parish Dinner Meeting is set for Tuesday, January 24th at 6:30 P.M.
Please mark your calendars.

A few Church Kalendars are left.
They are useful for every serious churchman. The Dorcas Society sells them.

Today we celebrate the Naming of Jesus on the eighth day after His Birth.
From the angel of the Annunciation, God first revealed the Name of the Saviour which has been the sweetest sound in Christendom ever since. Many have died with the simplest of prayers on their lips - "Jesus...Jesus."

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Elizabeth Mensing by Mrs.
William Hazelett.

The dinner of the Women's Guild which was postponed from December will be held Tuesday at four-thirty o'clock in the Parish House.

The Executive Committee of the Northeast Y.M.F. will meet at Trinity Church, Oxford Monday at seven-thirty o'clock.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated on Wednesday at ten o'clock.

The Rector will not be able to greet you after the service today; he must catch a bus for Plainfield, New Jersey where he will officiate at Evensong at a Feast of Lights Service. The Rector will celebrate his anniversary Eucharist at the altar of St. Andrew's Church Monday morning. If you have a message for the Rector today, please leave it with the Warden, Mr. A.O.Lewis.

The Vestry meets Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the office.

The ringing of the bell before the eleven o'clock service today has a double significance. All over the country today church bells will usher in the celebration of the Civil War Centennial. You will be seeing much of this observance in months to come.

The annual Parish Meeting will be prefaced with a dinner as it was last year.
You will be asked to bring various dishes with you for a "covered-dish" supper. It would be more correct to say we hope you will volunteer to bring various foods. A list will be in the narthex on Sundays until the meeting; please indicate what you will bring. The meeting is Tuesday, January 24, 1961. Please plan to come.

The "One Nation Under God" series on WFIL-TV will present the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom as celebrated in St. Michael's Orthodox Church of Philadelphia on Christmas. The recorded telecast will be shown this afternoon from 2:30 to 4:00 P.M. As you watch this glorious worship, remember that this is the official liturgy of the Orthodox Church, their Eucharist. The Orthodox have no "early" and "later" services, only one celebration of the Divine Liturgy on a Sunday. Remember also, that the Episcopal Church is in communion with the Orthodox, so that this is not just a colorful rite for us, but a real Holy Eucharist. Please do not miss it.

The Executive Committee of the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet in the rectory
Monday evening at 7:30 P.M.

The annual PARISH DINNER MEETING will be held Tuesday at six-thirty. If you cannot bring a dish, please do not

Prayer, Psalm 113, Lord's Prayer, Blessing

A LIGHT TO LIGHTEN THE NATIONS !

"CANDLEMAS"

One of four Feasts with titles ending in "mas" : Christmas, Candlemas, Lammass (now obsolete) and Michaelmas. This is the great Feast commemorating Christ as the Light of the World. The beloved Canticle at Evening Prayer, the Nunc dimittis, is in the Gospel for the day. The aged St. Simeon proclaims what Jesus would say of Himself in the Fourth Gospel, that He is indeed the Light of the world. Since the 11th Century the candles for the year's use in church were blessed on this day.

YOUR BLESSED CANDLE

You will receive one of the candles blessed at the Altar today. It looks like any ordinary little candle, but from now until it burns out it can only symbolize our Lord Jesus Christ. It should be kept and used when prayers are said in the home. You might well read the Nunc dimittis on page 28 of the Prayer Book as you light it. Another appropriate passage is John 8:12. May our Lord's Presence lighten your heart as this little candle lightens your room.

"It is very meet, right and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places give thanks unto thee..... Because in the Mystery of the Word made flesh, thou hast caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of thy glory in the face of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord."

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Anna and Thomas Hills, parents of Mrs. John Bottner.

Three infants are grafted into the Body of Christ today in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism: KENNETH FRANCIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rossiter; ANNETTE RUTH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan McCurdy; and MICHAEL PATRICK, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dwyer. God's blessing on their families today and through the years to come.

Evening Prayer will be said at the Chinese Church sponsored by the Diocese this afternoon at three o'clock. The Church is at Tenth and Spring Streets near Race. Bishop Y.Y.Tsu personally invites all of you to attend. The fine Center and playground will be shown in a tour after the service.

Tomorrow is the real "Blue Monday". Before the Church observed a Pre-Lenten Season, "Blue Monday" was the day on which the violet (originally blue) vestments were laid out for Ash Wednesday. Tuesday is "Shrove Tuesday" from "shrive" meaning to absolve. The faithful who prepare for a devout Lent confess their sins and recieve Absolution on this day. "Ash Wednesday" is the start of Lent, the solemn time of preparation for the most joyful of feasts - Easter.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Clara Virginia Moore and Thomas Moore, parents of Mrs. Joseph Frizell.

The Sacrament of HOLY BAPTISM will be administered today at twelve-thirty o'clock. NORMAN HARRY, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Evans will be received into the congregation of Christ's flock.

The Northeast Convocation of the Y.P.F. will meet this evening at eight o'clock at Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg, 8201 Frankford Avenue. A full-length, color feature motion picture will be shown.

The regular meeting of the Women's Guild is scheduled for Tuesday noon. All members are invited.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are the quarterly EMBER DAYS. Friday is also ST. MATTHIAS' DAY. The Wednesday services are according to your Lenten Calendar:
10:00 A.M., 3:30 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. The Friday service is at 10:00 A.M.

The Cub Scouts meet in the Parish House Friday evening.

Acolytes practice at 11:00 A.M. on Saturday.

The Prayer Book directs that the First Exhortation (page 85) be read on the First Sunday in Lent at Holy Communion; accordingly this is done today.

If you have not made a start on Lent, today is a good time to make your rule concrete. Show devotion to our Saviour by increased attention to your religion. A true Lent is more a matter of "taking on" than of "giving up".

"Ye shall pray for the ministers of God's Holy Word and Sacraments; for Bishops,
... likewise for all Priests and Deacons...

THE ADMISSION OF ACOLYTES
(Acolytes stand; people sit)

The Examination: Dearly beloved in Christ, who desire to be admitted to the Office of Acolyte in this Church, are you convinced that the work of this ministry is so important that, while you are appointed thereto, you should be diligent in performing the same?

ANSWER: I AM SO CONVINCED.

Will you try faithfully and reverently to execute the duties of your Office to the best of your ability, as unto the Lord and not unto men?

ANSWER: I WILL TRY TO DO SO.

Will you try to live in accordance with the holiness of this Office?

ANSWER: I WILL TRY, WITH GOD'S HELP.
(All then rise)

Antiphon and Psalm 43 page 394

The Lesson: St. Luke 12:35

The Admission: (Acolytes kneel, others stand)

I admit you to the Office of Acolyte in this Church; and I deliver into your hand the Candle as a token of your ministry;
In the Name + of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The bestowal of the Cross.

My sons, be not now negligent; for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him; and that ye shall minister unto him.

I will go unto the Altar of God;
ACOLYTES: EVEN UNTO THE GOD OF MY JOY AND GLADNESS.

Let us pray. (remain standing)
The Acolytes then retire, the Introit is sung, standing, and the Eucharist begins.
Kneel after the Introit.

Six Acolytes are admitted today. The Acolytes' Guild becomes a parish society.

in memory of Gustav Kardevan by his daughter, Mrs. W. Stearn and in memory of Ella Strecker by Mr. and Mrs. Strecker.

An illustrated ecclesiastical dictionary of terms used in the Church is available in the tract case at sixty cents.
Coins may be put in the box on the case.
You will find this booklet helpful in determining the correct terminology used in the Church.

The Northeast Y.P.F. Convocation executive committee will meet in the Parish House Monday evening.

The Chancel Rail of black wrought iron is dedicated today in memory of Herbert Harry and Mary Alice Keighley.
It is the gift of Miss Grace Keighley.
We hope it adds to your convenience as you come to the Altar.

The Wednesday services are at 10:00
A.M., 3:30 P.M. and 8:00 P.M. as before.

The Boy Scout Troop #140 plans a trip to Fort McHenry and the U.S. Naval Academy on Saturday, May 6. The cost is $7.00 per person for those who are not members of the troop; the price includes a hot meal.
Mr. Arthur Kauffman is in charge of details for the trip; reservations must be made with him by April 15.

The regular meeting of the Altar Guild is scheduled for Thursday evening.

"Davey and Goliath" a marionette show on a religious theme for children is to be seen currently on television at 9:00 A.M. Saturdays.

This is the halfway point in Lent,
a time to take stock of our Lenten rule.
Next Sunday begins Passiontide, growing toward the climax of Good Friday.

Altar flowers are given in memory of Dora Heebner by her husband, Mr. Reuben Heebner; also by Mr. Richard Farrow in memory of his mother.

Altar flowers are not credited with personal memorials on Easter Day. Anyone who wishes to contribute to the decoration of the Altar for Easter may leave such contribution in the basket at the west door. No flowers are used on Palm Sunday.

I publish the Banns of Marriage between Donald Shapley and Ruth Ida Bottner of this Parish. If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the first time of asking. (BCP, p. 304)

We were gratified at the response last Sunday to the offer of the new Concise Dictionary of Ecclesiastical Terms.
More copies are available in the tract case. They are helpful to all churchmen.

The Northeast Convocation of the Y.P.F. meets this evening at the Church of the Resurrection, Rowland Ave. and Wellington St. in Mayfair. We shall leave from here at 7:30 P.M.

A musical program of Haydn and Faure will be offered at Trinity Church at Chester Road and College Ave. in Swarthmore this evening at eight o'clock.

The Rev. N. M. Smith, curate of

Palms are distributed at all services today. Please hold them during the Gospel and the Procession and lay them aside at other times in the service. Take the palm home and keep it with a cross or sacred picture.

A convenient practice is for the people to stand during the blessing of the palms, kneeling as the Eucharist begins.

A notable drama, "GIVE US BARABBAS", will be shown on television today. It is highly recommended. Consult the newspapers for the time and channel. Don't miss it!

We announce with regret the passing of Margaret S. Boyd, mother of the Rev. Canon George H. Boyd, at her home in Perth Amboy, N.J. The Burial Office will be said in St. Bartholomew's at 1:00 P.M. Tuesday with internment at North Cedar Hill.

I publish the Banns of Marriage between Donald Shapley and Ruth Bottner of this parish. If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the second time of asking. (BCP, page 304)

HOLY COMMUNION will be offered on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of Holy Week at 10:00 A.M. There will be NO evening service on Wednesday, but the children's service at 3:30 P.M. will be held. CONFIRMATION will be a part of the Bishop's annual Visitation, this year on Maundy Thursday at 8:00 P.M. The Good Friday Service is from 11:30 A.M. to 3:00 P.M.

INTROIT: As the celebrant ascends to the Altar on this the chief feast of the year, he says an Introit, which you may follow on page 162, 163 in the Book Of Common Prayer.

CHRIST IS RISEN INDEED! ALLELUIA! ALLELUIA!

Flowers adorning the Altar are given to the greater glory of God by the parish family. Flowers at the chancel rail are from the funeral of Harry Wagner who was laid to rest on Easter Even.

Please fill out a record card if you receive Holy Communion today. It is not necessary to do so if you simply worship. Persons attending more than one service are instructed to commune at the first service they attend as this is correct. One does not receive more than once in a day, except for a celebrating priest, who must always receive what he consecrates.

I publish the Banns of Marriage between Donald Shapley and Ruth Bottner of this parish. If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two should not be joined in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the third time of asking. The marriage will be solemnized in the church Saturday, April 8 at 4:00 P.M.

On Rogation Sunday it is appropriate to use the Litany as it was first enjoined by Bishop Mammertus in the Fifth Century. Often it is still sung in procession before the Eucharist. In it we ask God for all things necessary.

The Rogation Days are days of solemn supplication in which the Church unites. They are indicated on page 11 of the Book of Common Prayer. The days occur today and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Holy Communion will be offered Wednesday at 10:00 A.M.

Thursday is ASCENSION DAY, the fortieth day of Eastertide and its close. Holy Communion will be offered at 10:00 A.M. and Evensong will be at 7:00 P.M. The Church considers this an important day to be kept by her people.

The Vestry will meet Thursday at 8:00 P.M. following Evensong.

We have received word that Edward Loeffler, known to many in this parish, will be ordained to the Diaconate on Saturday at 9:30 A.M. in the Church of the Holy Comforter, Burmont and Bond Avenues in Drexel Hill. We commend him and all to be admitted to Holy Orders to your prayers.

There will be NO Acolyte practice on Saturday of this week.

The N.E.Y.P.F. will meet in the parish house Monday evening at 7:30.

A roast beef dinner will be given by the Dorcas Society Saturday before Whitsuntide, May 20, from 5:00 to 7:00 P.M. Tickets are now available from any member of the Dorcas Society.

Any adult (over 18 years) who would be interested in a new Episcopal bowling league may get information from the rector.

Flowers are given in memory of Edward and Mary Wiley by Miss Lilla Wiley.

Flowers are given in memory of Mary Ellen and William Radcliffe by Mrs. Rose Duryea.

Church will be at Valley Forge Military Academy Chapel Tuesday at ten-thirty in the morning. $27.21 from 23 contributors from this parish will be included. The offering from this church last year was $32.75 from 28 persons.

HOLY COMMUNION is offered each Wednesday at ten o'clock.

Next Sunday is WHITSUNDAY or PENTE-COST, one of the three greatest festivals in the Church Year. It is the Feast of the Holy Spirit and the Birthday of the Church. All communicants should worship.

Acolytes practice on Saturday at eleven o'clock. This practice is very important, the Pentecost liturgy.

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered today after Morning Prayer.

The Rev. Edward Loeffler assists today at Holy Eucharist and Morning Prayer. At the Eucharist he serves as Deacon, reading the Holy Gospel and administering the Chalice of the Precious Blood. At Morning Prayer he serves as organist in the absence of Mr. Moore. Mr. Loeffler was recently ordained to the Diaconate and was graduated this week from the Philadelphia Divinity School. He will become the curate of St. Mark's Church, Frankford in June.

Ushers today are Mr. Clegg and Mr. Mangen. Acolytes are Earl Smith, William Zeltner and Walter Dyer respectively at the three hours of worship.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated on Wednesday at ten o'clock. There will be no services on Memorial Day.

The Visiting Committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Wharton, 4500 Comly St., on Friday evening.

* The Book of Common Prayer directs that the first of three Exhortations be read on Trinity Sunday. The Church exhorts us to amend our lives and to give thanks for our redemption by performing our bounden duty - the continual thank-offering of the Holy Eucharist.

Flowers at the Altar today are in memory of Herbert Henry Keighley, given by Miss Grace Keighley.

This bulletin is given in memory of Florence Clothier by the Dorcas Society.

The Proper Preface for today is on page 78 at the bottom; it is read by the celebrant before the Sanctus.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days (Rf. page 11 and pages 260, 261 of the Book of Common Prayer). HOLY COMMUNION will be offered on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, also on Saturday at the same hour.

The Northeast Y.P.F. meets this evening at Trinity Church, Oxford, at Oxford Ave. and Disston St. We shall meet here at 7:15 P.M.

The Cub Pack #140 meets Friday evening in the Parish House.

The Bohlen Lectures at Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square this evening and Monday and Tuesday evenings at eight o'clock will feature the Most Rev. Joost de Blank, Anglican Archbishop of Cape-town, famous for his Christian witness in the apartheid question. He is an outstanding Christian leader. The Rector urges you strongly not to miss ~~the~~ the Archbishop's addresses! There is no admission charge, but an offering may be taken.

Today is "E-Day". Make a telephone call tomorrow any time to LO 8-2600. Thirty lines will be open to receive subscriptions to The Episcopalian, our national magazine. The annual rate is $3.00, but if 24 subscriptions are taken in this parish, the individual rate will be only $2.50 ! Will you help? If you want to know about Episcopalianism all over the country, this is your magazine. Act now !

The Sacrament of HOLY BAPTISM is administered today after the Sung Eucharist. LYNN DOROTHY, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Skalski, is received into the congregation of Christ's flock. They come to us from St. Barnabas' Parish.

The proceeds from the Lawn Fete yesterday were about $25.00 short of the cost of the church school picnic. We would like to continue giving the children their picnic without charge. Those persons who were not able to support our venture of yesterday are invited to contribute in the basket at the door. The Dorcas will also offer a "silent cake sale". You may order a cake for a certain time by calling Mrs. Settle at DE 3-6833.
Help build up the fund.

The Church School Picnic is planned for Saturday, June 24, the feast of St.
John Baptist. Busses will leave for Holiday Lake, N.J. at 10:00 A.M.

HOLY COMMUNION will be offered on Wednesday at 10:00 A.M.

Representatives of each parish organization will meet in the rectory on Wednesday evening to set plans for the patronal festival in August.

The summer schedule of services will begin in July.

Acolytes today are Henry Blume at

"I WILL SAY UNTO THE LORD, THOU ART MY HOPE" Psalm 91:2

Today we celebrate the last of the Instructed Eucharists for children at 9:45. They will be resumed in September.

The Sacrament of HOLY BAPTISM is administered today after Morning Prayer.

Our guest organist today is Mr. Paul Martin, a recent graduate in music of Susquehanna University. Mr Martin is a resident of Frankford.

HOLY COMMUNION will be celebrated Wednesday at ten o'clock, and also at the same hour on Thursday, which is ST. PETER'S DAY.

The summer schedule of services will begin next Sunday:

8:00 A.M. Holy Communion

10:00 A.M. Family Service

The Family Service will be Sung Eucharist or Morning Prayer according to the usual scheme. Children will be dismissed at the sermon to go to a Church School class. There will be no 9:45 or 11:00 service. This schedule will be in effect until September.

Six of our children finished their work at Lawton School this week to go on to Junior High School in the fall. They are Linda Ann Dellarata, Walter Dyer, Beverly Freestone, Ruth Kauffman, Harold Paul, and Kathleen Wismann. Thomas George of our B.S.A. Troop #140 was also in the class. Our best wishes go to these children and God's blessing upon their new undertaking. Our good wishes also to others who have graduated this week; we do not have a full list of their names, so we use none.

Our thanks to the men who in recent weeks have been painting the parish house. Their work adds greatly to the well-being of God's House.

The summer schedule will be in effect until September. Two services on Sundays: 8:00 and 10:00 A.M.; no weekday services until late in August.

Unconfirmed children will be dismissed to a class in the parish house before the sermon. They will follow the crucifer on the last verse of the sermon hymn. The teachers are asked not to dismiss the children before the Recessional hymn.

The official city-wide service on Independence Day will be in St. George's Methodist Church at 235 N. 4th St. near the bridge. The time is 10:00 A.M. This is the oldest Methodist Church in the country. The ceremonies at Independence Hall will follow the service. Do not forget to thank God for our nation. There will be no service in our church on Independence Day.

The Visiting Committee will meet at the home of Mrs. William Most, 4308 Comly St. on Fri day evening.

All special notices for the July and August bulletins should be in by Friday of this week as the bulletins will have to be done in advance.

Our guest organist again this morning is Mr. Paul Martin, a graduate in music of Susquehanna University.

When you are on vacation this summer, make it your concern to locate the nearest Episcopal Church. The Christian who says that "any church will do" abandons loyalty and stands for nothing. Worship God on Sunday according to your profession of faith. Do not take a vacation from God!

There will be no Wednesday or Holy Day services until late in August.

The Acolytes' Guild will not meet until called in August.

After the second service next Sunday the Rector will begin his vacation. He will leave on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land to worship at the principal shrines of Christendom. On the three Sundays he is away, the Rev. William Hazelett will conduct the services. The Rector's itinerary will be given in each week's bulletin.

on Thursday last. May he rest in peace.

At 11:30 P.M. today the Rector will leave by jet plane from Idlewild for London on the first leg of a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. He will arrive in London Monday about noon. On Tuesday he will fly to Rome and on Wednesday he will enter Jerusalem, the holy city. In the next seven days he will worship at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, Mount of Olives, Shepherds' Field, Via Dolorosa, all on the Jordanian side of the Holy Land. Further itinerary will be listed next Sunday. The purpose of this trip is not merely a tour, but a pilgrimage to worship at the sacred shrines where our blessed Lord lived and died. The Rector commends himself to your prayers, as he will take you all along spiritually on this pilgrimage.

For the next three Sundays the services will be conducted by the Rev.
William Hazelett. We know you will want to welcome him back. Emergency min-istrations will be arranged for by a pool of clergy. Call Mr. A.O. Lewis.

Sermon: FATHER HAZELETT

We welcome back home the Rev. William Hazelett, who will conduct the worship during the Rector's vacation. We are fortunate to have his services.

Children who are not confirmed will be dismissed to a class on the lower floor of the parish house during the sermon hymn.

We are served again this morning by Mr, Paul Martin, our fine supply organist.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Ananda and Amos McLaughlin by the family.

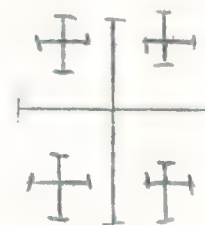

The Rector's pilgrimage to the Holy Land finds him still in Jerusalem, but on Thursday he will cross Mandelbaum Gate from the Jordan side to the Israeli side of Jerusalem. Now he will visit Nazareth, Cana and Tiberias, in the northern part of the Holy Land.

Mark down our special day:

SAINT BARTHOLOMEW'S DAY: THURSDAY, AUGUST 24

There will be services at 10:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M. You will receive notice later.

Men need not feel that they must wear coats throughout the service. There is no reason to be unnecessarily uncomfortable. We would suggest coats only for ushers and while at communion at the altar rail.

The Rector's pilgrimage to the Holy Land takes him to the Tel Aviv airport and from there to Athens, Greece. From Athens he leaves on Thursday for London.
At this printing it was uncertain as yet whether he would spend next Sunday in London or in New York.

Next Sunday is the Feast of the Transfiguration of our Lord Jesus Christ.
There will be Holy Communion at 8:00 and 10:00 A.M. We invite you to celebrate this testimony to the divinity of Christ by receiving Him in the Holy Sacrament of His Body and Blood.

Another date to reserve for the Lord is August 24, a Thursday. This is the feast of ST. BARTHOLOMEW, and a festival as fine as last year's is planned.

summer schedule: 8:00 and 10:00 A.M.

The Burial Office was said yesterday in the church for Helen I. McLean, late of 6555 Torresdale Ave. Of your charity, pray for her and her family. May the souls of the faithful, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Thanks to the help and interest of many, our patronal festival last Thursday was successful. In answer to several requests, the slides of the Holy Land will be shown again soon. The time will be announced.

Miss Mary D. Johnson is in room# 128 in Sacred Heart Hospital, Norristown, Pa. suffering a dislocated shoulder. We commend her to your prayers.

Our thanks to the Rev. Charles R. Summers for his help in the services today, and to the Parish Church of St. Andrew's, Plainfield, N.J., of which he is Rector, for the use of vestments.

Our thanks to the two organists, Mrs. Charles Summers and Mr. Paul Martin.

Our thanks to the Rev. Edward Loeffler, curate of St. Mark's Church, Frankford, for his help as Deacon.

Our thanks to the Committee, the cooks, the Choir, the Altar Guild, the men who set up for the supper; and all who have helped by their interest and generous gift of time to make our Festival an act of worship to our Eternal Father.

NOTES: "Hymn" numbers are found in the little blue book in the pew rack. "Page" numbers indicate the red book. The norm of worship is to stand while praising or singing, to sit while hearing instruction, and to kneel when called to prayer. Following the prevailing custom of the parish church in which we find ourselves makes possible the reverent worship of the entire congregation.

The OFFERING at this service is for the hungry and the suffering through Church World Service. Give out of your bounty to your brethren who are gravely in need. "Whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" - I John 3:17

Welcome to all, in the Name of God, who are mindful of the meaning of this holiday and take time to observe it. Blessed is the heart which knows that all things come from the Eternal Father and loves Him enough to give Him thanks. God has never yet been outdone in generosity! Even as we give to Him, He is sending new blessings.

Our thanks to the reverend clergy who are kind enough to assist in the service.

PARISH NOTE: The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated tomorrow at 8:00 A.M. Holy Baptism will be administered at 8:00 P.M. Brethren, pray for Karl Kauffman, for whom the Burial Office was said today in Emanuel Church and for his family of this parish. May he rest in peace. Tomorrow's offering is for the Episcopal Hospital as the Bishop requested.

Today ends the season of Sundays after Trinity

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Emily Hong by her daughter, Mrs. Anna Hong.

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered today at twelve-thirty o'clock to the infant son of Mr. and Mrs.
Kenneth Dorn. On the evening of Thanksgiving Day, the infant son of Sgt. and Mrs. Jennings of Camp Lejeune was baptized.
Please remember them both in your prayers.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Wesly Ruth have moved to 1871 S.W. 42nd Terrace, Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. While we are temporarily without a Sexton, the cooperation of everyone is asked to help keep the House of God clean and orderly. Please put things back where they belong after using them. Please do not leave bulletins, etc. lying about. We want particularly to discourage the leaving of used tissues in every nook and cranny, as they are rather obnoxious.

The final day for collecting the U.T.O.
blue envelopes is today.

The Community offering for Church World Service at the Thanksgiving Service held in our church last Wednesday was $68.35.

The hour of our own parish Thanksgiving Service was originally put back to 8:00 A.M. to accomodate the young people who had so many obligations on that day.
Where were you at 8:00 A.M.?

The Northeast Y.P.F. executive committee will meet in the Parish House Monday at 8:00 P.M.

The new women's group meets Wednesday at 1:30 P.M. and is open to all women.

Thursday is ST. ANDREW'S DAY. Holy Communion will be offered at 10:00 A.M.

Spaghetti supper sponsored by the Dorcas Society - Saturday, 5:00 to 7:00 P.M.

The Eucharist at eight o'clock today includes the Corporate Communion of Men and Boys in the parish. There will be a breakfast for them after the service.

A new Church Year begins today. We start fresh on the Propers at page 90 in The Book of Common Prayer. Accordingly, liturgical Kalendars are available today at sixty cents. EVERY COMMUNICANT NEEDS A KALENDAR. It helps in both our private and corporate worship, by helping us to follow the Church's seasons and days. Place one in your bedroom where you will see it first thing every day, and one in the kitchen or near the telephone. A Kalendar in every home is a help to the Rector, and helps to avoid schedule conflicts.

The first rehearsal for the Christmas Pageant will be held in the Parish House at two-thirty today. All who have volunteered or were selected, please come.

Wanted - an unused sheepskin lining from a coat. If you have such a rare item, we can use it for the Pageant.

HOLY COMMUNION is offered every Wednesday at ten o'clock.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's meet on Wednesday at one o'clock. All women welcome.

Thursday is the twentieth anniversary of Pearl Harbor. Pray for peace.

The Northeast Y.P.F. will sponsor a semi-formal dance at St. Mark's Parish House, 4442 Frankford Ave., on Saturday from nine to twelve. Tickets for the "Holly Hop" are two dollars the couple. There will be an orchestra, prizes and refreshments.

The children's pageant, a portrayal of the Nativity, is given at Morning Prayer today in place of the Sermon.

The Fourth Sunday in Advent is also the Eve of Christmas this year. The "Midnight Service" will be held tonight at 11:30 P.M. with a Carol Service preceding it at 11:00 P.M. The Second Holy Communion of Christmas will be at 10:00 A.M. Christmas Day. Most people are aware that we receive Communion only once in a day, but are confused concerning correct practice when attending a midnight service and also the later one. Communion at the midnight service is within Christmas Day, so that persons attending also at the morning service would offer an act of worship at the second service and receive at the first one attended. Communion at the early service today, the Fourth Sunday in Advent is never to be considered a substitute for Christmas Communion.

In addition to Christmas Day, Holy Communion will also be offered on the three holy days which occur this week, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 10:00 A.M. each day.

THERE IS NO NURSERY CARE AT 11:00 A.M. TODAY. WE WISH CHILDREN TO BE PRESENT. BRING THEM ALSO TO THE CHRISTMAS EUCHARISTS, BY ALL MEANS. LET CHILDREN LEARN VERY YOUNG THAT CHRISTMAS IS NOT SANTA'S DAY, BUT THE "CHRIST-MASS".

A new lectern copy of the Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible is blessed today in memory of Howard E. Craven, offered by his wife and sons. On a new lectern, (now in construction) the Bible will share the desk with the Authorized or King James Version now on the lectern, offering a choice of versions permitted for use in the Church.

The First Sunday after Christmas has been marked by an additional service of Holy Communion at the chief hour of worship for a few years in this parish, providing us with an extra opportunity to receive Communion at Christmastide.

Tomorrow, in addition to being the first day of the new calendar year, is also the Feast of the CIRCUMCISION OF CHRIST. There will be Holy Communion at ten o'clock Monday morning.

Wednesday celebrations of the Holy Communion will cease with the close of 1961. Holy Day observances will continue; the first of these is the Circumcision, the second falls on Saturday, January 6—the important Feast of the EPIPHANY, or the Manifestation of Christ to the Nations. Holy Communion will be offered Saturday at ten o'clock.

Two new members were received into the Acolytes' Guild on the Feast of St. Stephen — they are James and Richard Flynn.

NURSERY CARE is provided during the eleven o'clock service on Sundays. This is for infants. The Rector wants children of school age to attend the service with their parents.

The ANNUAL PARISH DINNER MEETING is scheduled for January 24, 1962 at six-thirty o'clock.

A few Church Kalendars remain for sale. They are an excellent aid to the informed churchman.

The Rector and his family wish to thank those who sent their greetings at Christmas. Your kindness is appreciated.

Christmastide closes with another great feast which was celebrated yesterday - the Epiphany - the manifestation of Christ to the Nations.

All parishes in the Diocese have been asked to receive blankets for the needy next Sunday, January 14. Some of the places they are needed are Texas, Hong Kong, and North Africa. It costs 25¢ to ship a blanket. Can you bring a blanket and 25¢ ?

Nursery care is provided during the eleven o'clock service downstairs in the Parish House. This is for infants only. School children are expected in church.

The executive committee of the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet in the Parish House Monday evening.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's meet on Wednesdays.

The Vestry meets Thursday at eight o'clock in the evening.

The annual Parish Dinner Meeting will be held Wednesday, January 24th at six-thirty o'clock. It will be a cover-dish meal. You may volunteer to bring specific dishes on a list in the narthex.

A public luncheon will be sponsored by the Women on Wednesday, January 17th from eleven thirty to one thirty. The price is 85¢ and 25¢ for pre-school children. Workingmen and housewives are invited.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Elizabeth Mensing by Mrs. William Hazelett.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will serve a public luncheon on Wednesday from 11:30 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. The price is 85¢ and only 25¢ for pre-school children. Business men, workmen and mothers are invited. Tell your friends.

Blankets for the relief of the needy are being received today. They will be turned over to the Diocesan office which will send them to various places in the United States and overseas. If you can add 25¢ to your gift of a blanket, it will take care of shipping costs. Please put the blankets on the table in the narthex. They are part of our offering to God — "(I was) naked, and ye clothed me." Matthew 25:36

The annual PARISH MEETING will be held in the Parish House, Wednesday, January 24, 1962. A cover-dish supper will be served at six-thirty o'clock. There is a list on the table in the narthex where you may indicate what dish you will bring. The parish organizations will report at the Meeting, concerning their 1961 activities.

Nursery care is provided during the eleven o'clock service for children below the age of school attendance.

"Therefore, take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? . . . But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow . . . Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. —Matthew 6:31 ff.

"HOW SHALL THEY PREACH: EXCEPT THEY BE SENT?"

The Preacher at Morning Prayer to-day is Mr. Howard Wood of Morrisville, Pa. He is a Postulant for Holy Orders in the Diocese of Pennsylvania. He is a Middler at Philadelphia Divinity School; upon graduation he will be ordained a Deacon and later a Priest of the Church. Mr. Wood graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and taught at Girard College. He is at present on the staff of Holy Trinity Church in Rittenhouse Square.

Mr. Wood will speak to us about theological education and the priesthood.

The Sunday nearest St. Paul's Day is marked by the national Church as a time for special emphasis upon Holy Orders. We are starting off one week early. We hope that you will make your offering to-day or next Sunday for Theological Education in the envelopes which you received. Our offering goes to P.D.S.

The annual PARISH MEETING will be held in the Parish House Wednesday night. The cover-dish supper will begin at six-thirty o'clock and the meeting at eight.

Thursday is the Feast of the CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL (p. 229, BCP). Holy Eucharist will be offered at ten o'clock. Special intention will be made for the conversion of the world to Christ.

The Northeast Y.P.F. will meet this evening at eight o'clock in St. George's Church, Richmond, at Belgrade St. and Indiana Ave. The speaker will be the Rev. W.R. Strickland of Episcopal Community Services. Refreshments and recreation will be had after the meeting.

Next Sunday the Instructed Eucharist will be held at the Parish House Altar at nine forty-five o'clock.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's meet each Wednesday. All women are welcome.

The Rev. Joseph Owen Gross
6002 Ditman St. -CU 8-4279

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Hannah Ruth Keighley by her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Loeffler.

Today is Theological Education Sunday. Please add to your offering the envelope you received for Philadelphia Divinity School.

DEBORAH ANNE, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Grant, 5935 Tulip St., is made a member of Christ's flock in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism today.

The Episcopal Young Churchmen will hold a diocesan meeting at the Church of the Saviour, 3723 Chestnut St., today at four o'clock.

Our parish Y.P.F. meets this evening at seven-thirty o'clock.

This is a week for emphasis on the Girls' Friendly Society. The national organization is 85 years old this year. Our own group meets on Saturday at ten-thirty o'clock. They are taking orders for cakes this week.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will meet for Morning Prayer at ten o'clock on Wednesday, after which they will sew.

The Visiting Committee meets Friday evening.

Friday is the Feast of the PRESENTATION OF CHRIST IN THE TEMPLE (p. 231 ff.) Holy Communion will be offered at ten o'clock. Any children present will be blessed.

"QUESTION 7", a Louis de Rochemont production, will premier on February 7. The Rector will have discount tickets next Sunday. The film concerns the actual life of Christians under the Communist dictatorship. It is a good film for young people as well as adults. It is not a sensational film, but a true one.

"LET THE PEACE OF CHRIST RULE IN YOUR HEARTS"

Nursery care is provided at the eleven o'clock service every Sunday. Volunteers from among the mothers who would use this service are solicited to spread the task around.

The Y.P.F. will meet at seven-thirty o'clock this evening. Part of the time will be spent rehearsing for a future entertainment.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's meet every Wednesday. All women in this parish are considered members.

The Vestry will meet on Wednesday at eight o'clock in the office.

Boy Scout Troop # 140 will hold its annual dinner in the Parish House on Thursday evening at six-thirty o'clock.

"QUESTION 7", a motion picture for all Christians of the 20th Century, will open at the Logan Theatre, Broad Street near Wyoming Ave. on Wednesday. Evening showings are at seven-thirty and nine-thirty. The Rector has ~~discount~~ coupons. Anyone wishing to make up a "theatre party" please join the Rector at the Church on Friday evening at six-thirty.

Heating the Church and Parish House is one of our largest yearly expenses. The income for heating is less than one-third of the expense! Please make a serious attempt to use the heating envelope in your box regularly.

The Rector will exchange services with the other "St. Bartholomew's" at 24th and Lehigh next Sunday at 11:00. A very interesting address will be yours next Sunday; you will be able to learn about an aspect of the life of the Church that few people know about.

The G.F.S. is selling cakes and the Girl Scouts are selling cookies today.

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Walter Kamzelski, who departed this life last Sunday morning. He was the father of Mrs. Rose Podlinski.

The flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Anna and Thomas Hills, by their daughter, Mrs. John Bottner.

May the souls of the faithful, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Today at eleven o'clock the two churches named in honor of St. Bartholomew are reminded of each other. Captain William C. Phy of the Church Army, who is in charge of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church at 24th and Lehigh comes to us to officiate as Lay Reader at Morning Prayer. The Rector will be celebrating the Eucharist at the other church, of which our Rector Emeritus, The Rev. John S. Gillespie was once rector.

The annual community Scout Service will be held at the Methodist Church at Comly and Jackson Sts. this evening at seven-thirty o'clock.

The Y.P.F. and those engaged in the Shrove Tuesday entertainment will meet in the Parish House after the Scout service.

The 8:00 A.M. Eucharist today will include a Corporate Communion for the Church School classes taught by Mrs. Most, Mrs. VonRohr and Mrs. Blume. Breakfast will be served in the Parish House.

The executive committee of the North-east Y.P.F. will meet in the Parish House Monday evening at eight o'clock.

The annual Corporate Communion for men and boys of the diocese will be held in St. Mark's Church on Saturday, February 24th at 8:00 A.M. The Rector would like to have all reservations by next Sunday.

"QUESTION 7" will be shown at the Logan Theatre until Wednesday.

Next Sunday at Morning Prayer the new lectern will be dedicated.

The Church puts on purple today in preparation for the coming Lenten season.
Now is the time to form your Lenten Rule.
It should be positive — take on things as well as "give up for Lent". Ash Wednesday will be March 7th. Make a good start.

The Bishop of Lincoln, England will conduct a day on the "Art of Meditation" for women at Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square. The morning meeting, starting with Holy Communion, is at ten-thirty. The

BENEDICTION OF THE LECTERN

Our help is in the Name of the Lord.
WHO HATH MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH.

Antiphon. Jesus, as his custom was, went into the synagogue on the sabbath day,* and stood up for to read. They read in the book in the law of God distinctly;
AND CAUSED THEM TO UNDERSTAND THE READING.

Let us pray. (STAND)

BLESS, +O Lord, this Lectern, and grant that all who shall read here the Scriptures which thou hast given us, being trained in mind and heart and voice, may be filled with the faith of the Gospel; and that all who hear thy holy Word may receive it into an honest and good heart, and may bring forth fruit with patience; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

AMEN.

BLESSED Lord, who hast caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; Grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience and comfort of thy holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast, the blessed hope of everlasting life, which thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ.

AMEN.

Hymn # 134

The double-desk lectern is dedicated to the glory of God in memory of Charles Habel (1879-1961), the gift of the family and many friends. Charles Habel was a communicant of this Parish from the turn of the century and sometime Senior Warden and Sexton, and above all, a fine Christian.

The lectern allows the easy reading of two lessons at the daily Offices. It also affords two of the versions of the Bible canonically approved (Canon 20) to be read in church: the Authorized and the Revised Standard Versions.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Dora Heebner by Mr. Reuben Heebner.

Versions of the Holy Bible used in the Service are Authorized and Revised Standard.

The film "Hunger" will be shown on Channel 6 today at 9:15 A.M. and again at 8:00 A.M. on Saturday. This film shows wide areas of need throughout the world.

Monday is the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary. See page 235 ff. in the Book of Common Prayer. Bishop Hart (and Bishop Stark of Newark) will celebrate Holy Communion for women at Old Christ Church at 8:00 A.M. followed by breakfast. For those not attending this service, there will be a celebration here at 10:00 A.M.

The Quiet Evening for women announced for Monday evening will have to be postponed to Wednesday of Holy Week, April 18.

The executive committee of the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet Monday evening.

Litany and sermon will comprise the Wednesday evening Lenten service at 8:00. Mr. Stanley Mainwaring, a candidate for the perpetual diaconate from All Saints' Parish, Torresdale will be the guest preacher. Fr. Gross will be preaching at St. Ambrose's Church. Come and worship.

A telephone has been placed in the Parish House Office. It is an extension of the Rectory telephone. To use this new telephone, see the Rector, Sexton or a Vestryman, who will open the Office. New instruments have replaced the pre-war telephones in the Rectory.

Another recent improvement is a new water heater for the rectory to replace one that developed a sudden leak. Fortunately, we had in reserve fifty dollars from an anonymous donor to pay for the heater.

How is your Lenten Rule progressing? Don't let Satan talk you out of keeping it. This week marks the mid-point of Lent.

"REND YOUR HEART, AND NOT YOUR GARMENTS."

in memory of Elizabeth and Charles M.
Maier by their daughter, Mrs. Alva Lewis.

The Y.P.F. will meet at seven-thirty o'clock this evening. We plan to elect two officers for the coming year.

The mid-week Lenten Service at 8:00 P.M. on Wednesday will be conducted by Father Ware of Holy Innocents' Church.
The Rector will preach at that church on Thursday evening.

The Visiting Committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Settle, 4627 Benner St., on Friday evening.

Flowers are being sold for Easter by the Dorcas Society. Candy is being sold by the Church School. Please see fuller information on the bulletin board at the door of the church.

A new member is received into the Acolytes' Guild this morning. Harold Paul increases the strength of the Guild to eight members. These boys exercise a high privilege in serving God's Altar.

Next Sunday begins Passiontide, which brings us closer to those divine acts of Redemption which the Church commemorates with compassion and joy.

We announce with sorrow the death of the Rector's mother, Flora Layton Gross, on Friday evening. Burial Office and the Requiem Eucharist will be said in the church on Tuesday at ten o'clock. Internment will be in Bethlehem, Pa. In lieu of flowers you may make an offering to the church. Of your charity, pray for her.
May her soul, and the souls of all the faithful, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Rest eternal grant unto her, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon her.

Flowers at the Altar today are in memory of William Greiner, given by his wife, Mrs. Rose Greiner.

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Flora Gross by the Young People's Fellowship.

The mood of Lent deepens as we come to Passiontide. Crosses and pictures in the church are veiled, temporarily hiding the glory of Christ. Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, opening Holy Week.

The Y.P.F. will meet this evening at seven-thirty o'clock.

The Northeast Y.P.F. executive committee will meet Monday night at Trinity Church, Oxford Ave. and Disston St.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will take a trip to New York City on Wednesday. Ladies are to be here by 7:45 A.M. Holy Communion will be celebrated for communicants at 7:15 A.M.

The Vestry meets Thursday evening in the Parish House office.

The Choir and Acolytes' Guild will rehearse the liturgy next Saturday at 10:00 A.M. Very important rehearsal!

Palms are distributed at all services today. Please hold them during the Gospel and the Procession and lay them aside at other times. Take the palm home and put it behind a sacred picture or a cross. PLEASE STAND DURING THE ENTIRE BLESSING OF PALMS, EVEN DURING THE PRAYERS.

Holy Baptism will be administered today at twelve-thirty o'clock. Thomas Ronald Landis of 4544 Hale St. will be grafted into the Body of Christ.

Evensong will be offered at seven-thirty o'clock this evening. The color slides taken by the Rector last summer in the HOLY LAND will be shown. The Y.P.F. will offer light refreshments.

St. Christopher's, a new mission in the Diocese, will open for services today in Oxford, Pa. Our prayers be with them.

There will be services every day this week except Saturday. Please consult your schedule for exact times.

A Quiet Evening for Women will be given Wednesday beginning at 7:30 P.M. Bring your Bible and Prayer Book. Guests are welcome.

Contributions for Altar flowers for Easter may be left at the door. No personal memorials are used at Easter.

On Good Friday you will have an opportunity to give to the relief of suffering and also to aid education in the Holy Land. The Presiding Bishop is calling for this special offering.

I publish the Banns of Marriage between James Booker and Dorothy Tyler, both of this parish. If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. 1.

CHRIST IS RISEN INDEED ! ALLELUIA !

If you should attend more than one Eucharist today, it is correct to receive Holy Communion at the first one attended.

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered at Church School today. It is a very ancient Christian practice to baptize on Easter (or Easter Even). Kenneth Charles Roth and Catherine Ruth Brazee are grafted into the Body of Christ.

Holy Communion will be celebrated on Wednesday of this week at 10:00 A.M.

A luncheon will be served to the public on Wednesday from 11:30 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. by the Women of St. Bartholomew's.

An Antique Mart will be sponsored by All Saints' School, Pen Ryn, on Saturday at 1601 State Road in Andalusia. Early model automobiles will be shown among other exhibits. Donation 50¢ - open all day.

Holy Communion in Eastertide for the house-bound and infirm may be had by telephoning the church - CU 8-4279.

Please make your personal preparation for Communion before the service.

I PUBLISH THE BANNS of Marriage between James Booker and Dorothy Tyler, both of this parish. If any of you know cause or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the second time of asking.

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Howard Craven by his family.

Flowers at the Altar today are from the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. James Booker (Dorothy Tyler), who were united in Holy Matrimony yesterday in the church. Pray for God's continued blessing upon them.

The Y.P.F. will meet at 7:30 P.M. to talk about the hayride, the trip to Valley Forge and the Corporate Communion.

Today we are asked to emphasize the parochial school at Pen Ryn. Some of the bulletins tell about it and there is fuller information on the table near the church door.

The Vestry meets Thursday evening in the parish house office.

Boy Scout Troop # 140 will sponsor a spaghetti supper in the parish house on Saturday from 4:00 to 7:00 P.M. The prices are 85¢ and 50¢ for children. Come and support the Scouts.

The Convocation of Germantown will meet at the Cathedral on Wednesday, May 16, beginning at 5:30 P.M. Supper tickets are $2.00. The Rector must have your reservation by next Sunday.

The U.T.O. is being received again this week. Use the blue envelopes.

The Good Friday Offering for work in the Holy Land was $18.35. Brochures which tell of this work are on the table near the door. (They arrived after Easter)

Looking ahead: ASCENSION DAY is on May 31 this year. We are planning a special evening service. We hope to have more details by next Sunday.

Flowers at the Altar today are in memory of Herbert Harry Keighley, given by his daughter, Miss Grace E. Keighley.

HOLY BAPTISM will be administered today during Morning Prayer. Suzanne Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Emmett, 4601 Howell St., is made a member of the Body of Christ.

The mite box offering of the children of the Diocese will be presented to the Bishop this afternoon at 4:00 P.M. at the Cathedral, 8600 Ridge Ave.

The Northeast Y.P.F. will have its last full meeting of the season tonight at 8:00 P.M. at Trinity Church, Oxford. Officers for the new year will be installed. The N.E.Y.P.F. will sponsor a hayride next Saturday night.

The Episcopal Hospital May Fete will be held Wednesday from 11 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. on the grounds.

The special program planned for the evening of Ascension Day will be held on Whitsunday evening instead. Information will be given later. There will be simple Evening Prayer on Ascension Day, though, at 7:30 P.M. marking the close of Eastertide.

First call for Confirmation! The date of the next Confirmation is not yet known, but all who intend to be confirmed are invited to register with the Rector next Sunday at 9:45 A.M. The first thing you will need is your Baptismal certificate. Godparents, are you still on the job? You promised that you would "take heed that this child, so soon as sufficiently instructed, be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him." (B.C.P., p. 277.) A godparents job goes on until the child makes his own vow before the Bishop.

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Will and Mary Lewis, parents of Mr. Alva O. Lewis.

NOTE: The Prayer for the whole state of Christ's Church (p. 74), which follows the Offering, will be said STANDING today. We often assume that Episcopalians are "Christians who kneel", but the Early Church stood for prayer. Even when kneeling was introduced for penitential times and gradually became customary throughout the year, kneeling was prohibited during the joyous season of Eastertide. Standing for the prayer for the Church gives sense to the rubric which follows in the exhortation: "devoutly kneeling".

Evensong will be offered today at 7:30. Mrs. Robert A. Hibbs will show slides on the Church in the Philippines. Please make the necessary effort to come out again this evening. Scientific surveys by impartial doctors show no adverse effects on persons attending church twice in one day.

PLEASE READ the article "The True Function of A Christian Church" which you received this morning. It is worth while.

The Ember Days, quarterly times of prayer for the Sacred Ministry, occur on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The Propers are on pp. 260, 261. The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated on Saturday at 10:00 A.M.

The Vestry meets Thursday evening at 8:00 P.M. in the parish office.

The Church School picnic will be held Saturday, June 23 at Holiday Lake, N.J.

HOLY BAPTISM will be administered today at 12:30 P.M. to Donna Lee Bryant, 4604 McKinley St., and Susan Marie Crisclo, 6604 Torresdale Ave.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Howard Craven by his sons, Richard and Robert Craven.

"Our Church Times" is given in memory of Leon and Barbara Podlinski by their daughter, Mrs. Alfreda Flynn.

Doreen Lynn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Karwoski, 6437 Tulip St., is grafted into the Body of Christ which is the Church by the Sacrament of Holy Baptism today at Morning Prayer.

The FLAGS of the United States and the Episcopal Church which hang in the chancel are given in memory of George MacMullin by his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Kauffman. The church flag is not the so-called "Christian flag" (which is not an official ensign), but the official standard of the Episcopal Church in the U.S.A. The large red cross is the cross of St. George (England) and the nine crosses form the saltire cross of St. Andrew (Scotland). The small crosses represent the original dioceses in America.

Trinity Church, Oxford Ave. and Diss-ton St., will observe its 264th anniversary today at three o'clock. Among the attractions will be some persons in colonial costumes. St. Barnabas' Church, 3rd and Dauphin Sts., will observe its patronal festival with Evensong today at eight o'clock. Bishop Hart will be the preacher.

Monday is ST. BARNABAS' DAY, transferred by rules of precedence. Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8:00 A.M., because of a conflict at the usual hour.

Luncheon will be served by the Women on Wednesday at 11:30 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. The clergy of Wissinoming will meet at noon.

The annual Church School picnic will be held at Holiday Lakes, N.J. next Saturday. Please come at 9:30 A.M.

Men and boys should not feel that they are obliged to wear jackets in church during the hot weather. Tradition prescribes special vesture only for the clergy and others who minister in the worship. Gentlemen, won't you remove your coats?

Adult instruction will be given in the rectory (6002 Ditman St.) Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. This will be the last time until August 8th.

Women who are interested in the trips planned by the Women of St. Bartholomew's on October 10 and December 12 are asked to telephone Mrs. Clegg at MA 4-0348 in regard to your reservation this week.

Mr. William Logan returned from the hospital this week after surgery. He is doing fine. Mrs. Bernice Gillies continues to improve.

The SUMMER SCHEDULE of services will continue as indicated on the opposite page until after Labor Day.

Monday evening at eight o'clock all women of the parish are invited to meet to discuss the autumn bazaar and the patronal festival.

The Patronal Festival will be kept on Friday, August 24, St. Bartholomew's Day. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 A.M. for those who are employed during the day, at 10:00 A.M. with music.
Evensong and Sermon will be offered at 6:00 P.M. followed by supper.

Confirmation instruction will be given for children in the church on Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 P.M. Adult instruction will be Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. in the rectory.

Mr. Frank Taylor has returned home from the hospital. Mr. William Trinkle is in #1229 of Hahnemann Hospital. Please remember them in your prayers.

An altar frontal and some new vestments will be blessed next Sunday for use the first time at the patronal festival.
The blessing will be at the ten o'clock service.

The question usually comes up, so we will anticipate it - Wednesday of this week will be observed as a major feast day in the Roman Church: the Assumption of the Virgin Mary. This refers to her miraculous "taking up" into Heaven, a dogma proclaimed as "of the Faith" by the Pope in 1950, before which it was usually called the Dormition or "falling asleep". It appears on some of the Kalendars prepared for use in the Episcopal Church, but is NOT kept officially, lacking warrant.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S DAY - FRIDAY, AUGUST 24th !

Flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Fernandus and Julie Stearn by their son Wilmer Stearn.

Hymns # 331 and 480 are being used today partly to rehearse them for the Festival. Will you therefore sing them with the intention of becoming more familiar with them. Neither hymn is entirely new to us.

Mrs. Edward Holland enters Frankford Hospital today. Please pray for her.

Confirmation Instruction is being given at this time in preparation for the next Visitation of the Bishop. The day is Wednesday - the hours are 3:00 P.M. for children and 7:30 P.M. for adults.

Table setting and other work for the Festival will take place Friday after 12 Noon.

The 7:00 A.M. Eucharist on Friday is especially offered so that those who are employed during the day may make their Communions. The 10:00 A.M. Eucharist will be sung. Evensong begins at 6:00 P.M. The supper will be served after Evensong. The prime purpose of the Patronal Festival is to thank God for this parish, our spiritual home, to ask His continual blessing upon this Christian family.

Today at Morning Prayer some new Red paraments are blessed to be used for the first time at the Festival. A Red Altar Frontal is given in memory of Frank and Emily Hong by the family. Red Eucharistic Vestments are given in memory of the Rectors's mother by him.

The flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of James Dodds by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Dodds.

Today we resume the standard hours of worship and the Church School opens. Let us ask God in our prayers today for strength and inspiration to serve Him in this new season.

The Y.P.F. opens this evening at 7:30 P.M. All persons from 13 to 19 years of age are cordially invited. The executive committee of the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet Monday evening in the parish house.

The 12th International Conference on Spiritual Healing will open today at St. Stephen's Church, 10th St. below Market St. You are welcome to all sessions except business meetings from now until Wednesday. See bulletin in the narthex.

Adult instruction will continue at 7:30 P.M. in the rectory each Wednesday. Children's instruction will be changed as announced with the opening of public school.

The Visitation of the Bishop will be Sunday, October 21 at 11:00 A.M. and he will confirm those who are prepared.

The Vestry meets Thursday of this week at 8:00 P.M. in the office.

New heating units (gas-fired) have been installed in the church and rectory by Mr. Harry Clegg. They replace oil units which were no longer dependable for another year. When they are fully connected by the Gas Co. they should prove adequate for our needs.

Cub Pack council will meet in the parish house Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Myrtle Holland is convalescing at home after surgery.

The flowers at the Altar today are from the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. William Bauerle (Eleanor Smith) which was solemnized yesterday in the church.

One pledge card was sent to each family. More are available; ask an usher. Directions for the presentation of the pledges will be given at the time. We hope that PRAYER and THOUGHT have gone into your pledge. If not, stop a while.

The Rector will fly by jet plane this afternoon to Wichita for the "Wichita Liturgical Conference". He will return on Friday. During his absence, pastoral ministrations will be in charge of the Rev. Edward Loeffler of St. Mark's Parish. He will be available at one of these numbers:

St. Mark's Church - JE 5-0635

(until 4:00 p.m.)

Residence - JE 3-0629

(after 4:00 p.m.)

The conference will be an intensive study of the Church's Liturgy with daily Holy Eucharist and the Offices being said. See the poster on the bulletin board.

The Y.P.F. will meet at 7:30 p.m. today. All young people are welcome.

An old-fashioned SQUARE DANCE will be sponsored by the Y.P.F. on Saturday starting at 7:30 p.m. The young of all ages are invited to dance or just to watch. Tickets are being sold today by the Y.P.F. The refreshments will be worth coming out for alone and the callers are professional.

The United Thankoffering of the Women of the Church is being called in. This time we are also collecting old silver to be melted down to make a fine alms basin for the Diocese. (No jewels, please!)

Next Sunday at the 8:00 a.m. service, the two oldest classes of the Church School will have a corporate communion.

The 10:00 a.m. service is the only one in the church today. We are grateful for the gift of the lovely flowers which adorn the Altar today.

We combine Morning Prayer in its short form, allowed in the rubrics, with the Holy Eucharist. Our Prayer Book in a number of places indicates that Morning Prayer is meant to be the preparation for the fuller act of worship in the Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Morning Prayer adds the Old Testament Lesson to the New Testament Epistle and Gospel always read in the Eucharist, giving us a very early type of celebration dating back to the ancient Christian Church. The service will not be too hard to follow if you will read the order on the opposite page. This sort of service - Morning Prayer leading up to the Eucharist - is being revived today in the Church not to imitate the medieval Church, but the worship of those earliest Christians of the apostolic period itself.

We shall respond to the Bishop's request by designating today's offering for the work of the chaplains at Episcopal Hospital, with or without the use of the special envelope sent to us by the Hospital.

We announce with sorrow the death of Lillian Walker, wife of Mr. Henry Walker. The funeral service will be at Robinson's Home on Torresdale Ave. on Friday at 1:00 p.m. with viewing this evening. May she rest in peace.

This bulletin is provided through the kindness of the Goodwill Industries of Philadelphia who solicit your support.

TODAY IS THE LAST SUNDAY IN TRINITY SEASON.

Flowers at the Altar today are in memory of Emily Hong by her daughter, Mrs. Ann Hong.

The bulletin today is given in memory of Arthur Kauffman by the Dorcas Society.

The Church School Staff will meet at noon today following Morning Prayer.

A new purple frontal for the Altar is blessed today as a memorial. A set of Eucharistic vestments to match (chasuble, stole, maniple) is also blessed. These new vestments will be used next Sunday.

The Y.P.F. will meet tonight at 7:30 in the church.

The Northeast Clericus (Episcopal) will meet here Monday morning. Morning Prayer and Holy Eucharist will be offered at 9:00 a.m. The Rector would like to make this service "open" to all. Breakfast for the clergy will be in the rectory.

The Northeast Y.P.F. executive committee will meet in the parish house on Monday night at 8:00 p.m.

Girl Scouts meet every Monday night at 7:00 p.m. in the parish house.

Friday is ST. ANDREW'S DAY. See the article in column one of the first page of this bulletin. Holy Communion will be offered at 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. May we see more communicants make the effort?

Next Sunday is the beginning of the Advent season, our preparation for the great feast of Christmas. A corporate communion for men and boys will be held at 8:00 a.m. next Sunday. Please return the reservation card you will receive this week for the breakfast.

A ham supper will be given by the Dorcas Society on Saturday, December 8.

Today we begin a new Church Year. Men and boys of the parish receive Holy Communion together at the eight o'clock Eucharist. A breakfast will be served in the lower room of the parish house.

The teen-age class of the Church School has made the Advent Wreath for us again this year. The four candles represent the four Sundays of Advent and the center candle represents Christ. The lighting of the wreath at supper is an old custom in the family in parts of Europe.

The new purple vestments are used for the first time today. In the center of the Altar frontal is the Latin word "PAX", It means "peace" in the Christian sense. The Rector will preach on this subject later in the season.

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be administered today at 12:30 p.m.

7:30 The Y.P.F. will meet this evening at p.m. in the church.

The Visiting Committee will meet on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Anne Hong at 9018 Brous Ave.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will begin their meeting on Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. with Holy Communion.

Children who are participating in the Christmas Pageant should be here at 7:00p.m. on Wednesday.

A Ham Supper will be given on Saturday evening by the Dorcas Society.

New 1963 Church Kalendars are available today at 75¢. They have a photo of the Altar and a list of all the services. They would make good Christmas gifts with a "missionary" emphasis. Profit goes to the Y.P.F.

Jewelry ordered at the Bazaar may be obtained in the Sacristy after the service.

"HEAR, READ, MARK, LEARN, DIGEST" - Collect

Flowers at the Altar today are given as memorials as follows: in memory of Deatrice Settle by Irene Settle; in memory of Alfred Morgan by Miss Mildred Morgan; in memory of Annie Porr by Mrs. David Moore; in memory of Sarah Chambers by Mrs. Vessey.

Morning Prayer at eleven o'clock today is in charge of Captain William C. Phy of the Church Army of the Episcopal Church. He is in charge of St. Bartholomew's at 25th and Lehigh, where Fr. Gross will be celebrating Holy Communion today.

Rehearsal for the Christmas Pageant will be held in the church at 3:00 p.m. today and also at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday.

Church Kalendars for 1963 are available from the Y.P.F. at 75¢ each. They show a photograph of the Altar and list all the services for Sundays and Holy Days. Every communicant should have one; learn the liturgical year easily. They also make fine gifts for Christain friends.

The Northeast Y.P.F. executive committee will meet Monday at 8:00 p.m. here.

The Women of the parish will journey to New York City on Wednesday.

The Vestry will meet Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m. in the church office.

The Visiting Committee likes to give fruit to shut-ins at Christmas. They will welcome any contributions. Please see Miss Margaret McLaughlin.

We customarily do not use any specific flower memorials on Christmas Day, but ask for a general offering for decorations. If you care to contribute, you may use the basket at the church door.

Next Sunday the Frankford a capella choir will sing at St. Mark's Church, 4442 Frankford Ave. at 8:00 p.m. You are invited. The Y.P.F. will attend as a group.

 "OUR KING AND SAVIOUR DRAWETH NIGH" (p. 3)

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Flora Layton Gross by Mr. Joseph O. Gross, Sr.

Today at Morning Prayer we admit to the Office of Lay Reader, Mr. Rutherford Hargrave. He has been instructed and duly licensed by the Bishop of Pennsylvania for the year 1963. He may read all of the Day Offices but the Absolution. We know that a Lay Reader will prove useful.

There will be a rehearsal of the Pageant today at 3:00 p.m. and also on Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. The Pageant will be presented next Sunday at 11:00 a.m.

The Frankford High School a cappella choir will sing tonight at St. Mark's Church 4442 Frankford Ave. at 8:00 p.m. Everyone is invited. The Y.F.F. will attend.

There are a few 1963 Church Kalendars left at 75¢ each. Every home should have one.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are EMBER DAYS. Friday is also ST. THOMAS' DAY. There will be Holy Communion on these days at 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. (10:00 a.m. only on Saturday).

Holy Communion on Christmas will be at 11:30 p.m. Christmas Eve and 10:00 a.m. Christmas Day.

On Saturday occurred the death of Manie MacMullin, mother of Mrs. Arthur Kauffman. Funeral service will be at noon on Wednesday at Kester's Funeral Home, with viewing the previous evening. Of your charity pray for her. May she rest in peace.

CHRIST THE SAVIOUR IS BORN! LET US ADORE HIM!

We announce with sorrow the death of the last week of Augusta Lewis, wife of Mr. Alva O. Lewis, Senior Warden. Viewing will be tonight at Robinson's on Torresdale Ave. The Burial Office will be said in church Monday at 10:00 a.m. with interment in Sunset Memorial Park. Of your charity pray for her. May she rest in peace.

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Augusta Lewis by the Women of St. Bartholomew's.

HOLY BAPTISM will be administered at 12:30 o'clock today. Harry Louis Shaw is made a member of Christ's Body in this Sacrament. Add your prayers to God's act.

The Y.P.F. meets this evening at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

HOLY EUCHARIST will be offered at 10:00 a.m. on January 1st, New Year's Day, which is the Church's Feast of the CIRCUMCISION OF CHRIST. There will be only one service on this day.

Sunday, January 6 is the great Feast of the EPIPHANY or the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles. This is the well-known "twelfth day of Christmas", the arrival of the Magi.

The annual Parish Dinner Meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 23, 1963. Family fellowship will be followed by a business meeting.

Have you been enjoying the articles on "The Church Visible" in the centerfold of the bulletin? Canon Jatho's entire 'wee' book from which these articles were taken is now available on the tract case at 75¢ the copy. Children and adults will like it.

NOTE: The special colored Christmas bulletin was a memorial to Arthur Kauffman by his wife and children. This notice did not come through in printing. that special bulletin

NOW LET THE LIGHT OF CHRIST SHINE!

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Augusta Lewis by the Women of St. Bartholomew's.

The Rector will officiate at Solemn Evensong in St. Andrew's Church, Plainfield, N.J. this evening in connection with their annual Feast of Lights.

The Vestry will meet Thursday evening in the parish house office.

The Visiting Committee will meet on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Wismann, 6140 Hegerman St.

The Church School classes taught by Mrs. Most and Mrs. VonRohr will unite in Corporate Communion next Sunday at 8:00 am. Breakfast will follow the Eucharist and parents of the class members are invited.

The annual PARISH DINNER MEETING will be held on Wednesday, January 23 at 6:30 p.m. You are asked for either a dish or one dollar. There is a list in the narthex on which you may indicate your donation.

The processional torches which are used today and which were first used on Christmas Eve were purchased from the general memorial fund. The drinking fountain in the parish house corridor was purchased from the "little wooden church" fund.

The flowers at the Altar today are in memory of William Ayling, given by his wife and sister. May he rest in peace.

The flowers used in church are now being obtained from Lou's Flower Shop, 6014 Torresdale Ave.

At the Sung Eucharist three persons are admitted to special lay ministries: Mrs. Fred Wismann becomes head of the Altar Guild to succeed the late Augusta Lewis; Mr. W. Raymond Hellings takes on the superintendence of the Church School to succeed Mr. David H. Moore, Sr. who served for sixteen years; Dale Lee Strange is officially admitted to the Acolytes' Guild. Tokens of their respective duties are placed in their hands; This service demonstrates the necessity of specific and varied functions within the Body of Christ. Add your prayers to God's blessing upon them.

The Y.P.F. will again provide a coffee hour after Sung Eucharist. It is true that if you rush home you can have coffee there, but you will miss the fellowship.

If any of you know cause, or just impediment, why these two persons should not be joined together in holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it. This is the third (and last) time of asking. The wedding rehearsal will be held in the church Friday at 7:30 p.m. Private Nuptial Eucharist will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Saturday and the marriage will be solemnized at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, followed by a reception in the parish house.

The Y.P.F. will meet tonight at 7:00, and also on Tuesday at 7:00 to rehearse for the Mardi Gras Revue. The executive committee of the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet here Monday night. Next Sunday evening we shall be host to the Convocation Y.P.F. at 7:30 p.m.

The Vestry will meet at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday in the office. The Altar Guild will meet at the same hour downstairs.

There will a Valentine Dance for young people at St. Mark's Church, Frankford on Saturday from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Tickets are available from members of the Y.P.F.

St. Andrew's Brotherhood will sponsor a Corporate Communion for men and boys at Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg on Saturday, February 23 at 8:00 a.m. Breakfast will be served; make reservations with Fr. Gross.

LENT starts within three weeks. Plan now to make it worthwhile. Make a Rule.

Shrove Tuesday supper and entertainment February 26th. Save the date. A good time for the whole family.

LENT STARTS WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27

The Northeast Convocation Y.P.F. will meet here at 7:30 p.m. today. After Evening Prayer the Rev'd William Shepherd, CSSS, will show slides on his missionary work in Puerto Rico. All young people are invited.

The annual Corporate Communion and breakfast for Men and Boys sponsored by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held in Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg on Saturday at 8:00 A.M. At the breakfast the Rev'd Kilmer Myers will speak via radio. Please make your breakfast reservations today with the Rector. There is a sheet of paper for this purpose on the table in the narthex.

A luncheon will be sponsored by the Women of St. Bartholomew's on Wednesday from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

On SHROVE TUESDAY, February 26, we will have a Pancake Supper at 6:30 p.m. followed by the "Mardi Gras Revue", an all-new entertainment. Adults are asked for a donation of at least $1.00. Mrs. David Moore is chairman of the supper committee. Men will cook! The young people will entertain! Don't miss it!

ASH WEDNESDAY, of course, follows Shrove Tuesday on February 27. The Eucharist, preceded by Penitential Office, will be offered at 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. There will be Litany and hymns at 8:00 p.m. Make a good start; don't fail to observe Ash Wednesday.

Instructed Eucharist will be given at 9:45 a.m. next Sunday in the church.

We have received a purple Burse and Veil from St. Stephen's Church through Mrs. Naomi Weist.

Pray for the sick: Ethel Bowyer, Edith Clark, Wallace Boudwin, Elmer Strecker, Lillian Laib.

Of your charity, pray for the soul of Thomas Parker, Priest, who died last week. He was the Rector's presenter at Ordination. May he rest in peace.

ASH WEDNESDAY IS FEBRUARY 27, 1963

The flowers at the Altar are given in memory of Nicholas Staal, grandfather of Harold and Arlene Paul.

Monday is the Feast of St. Matthias, page 233ff in the Prayer Book. It is transferred by rules of precedence from the 24th. Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 a.m. (The usual 10:00 a.m. service will have to be cancelled on this day).

The executive committee of the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet here Monday night.

The entire cast of the "Mardi Gras Revue" will meet today at 3:00 p.m. for an all-day dress rehearsal. They will eat supper here and conduct Evening Prayer.

Shrove Tuesday occurs this week. There will be a pancake supper at 6:30 p.m. We will ask for a donation from each person who attends. After the supper an all-new "Mardi Gras Revue", a comedy revue, will be presented on our stage. Come and have a happy evening; bring the whole family.

The following day is ASH WEDNESDAY,
the beginning of LENT. Make a good start.
Two identical services will be offered at 7:00 and 10:00 a.m., namely Penitential Office and Holy Eucharist, lasting a little longer than a half hour. At 8:00 p.m. the Litany will be read with hymns and Sermon.
Each Wednesday in Lent until Holy Week, there will be services at 7:00 a.m. and at 8:00 p.m. The evening services will feature several guest preachers.

The World Day of Prayer is always the first Friday in Lent. On Friday, March 1, the community service will be at the Presbyterian Church at Torresdale Ave. and Howell St. at 8:00 p.m. Several women from our church will participate. You are invited to attend. The emphasis is missionary.

There will be a coffee hour after the 11:00 service next Sunday.

Women of St. Bartholomew's meet Wednesday at 10:00 a.m.

Holy Eucharist Wednesday at 7:00 a.m.

Litany at 8:00 p.m. Guest preacher the Rev. Charles R. Summers, Rector of St. Andrew's Church Plainfield, N.J. Fr. Gross will conduct the service at St. Ambrose's Church, Howard and Ontario Sts.

Thursday Church School staff meet in Rectory at 8:00 p.m.

Friday Visiting Committee at home of Mrs. Frank Brown, 6323 Legerman St. (evening).

The Rector notices that sometimes persons coming to Holy Communion do not really drink from the Chalice. We are sure that this is an unintentional sacrilege. Our spiritual ancestors suffered to get the Chalice back. It does not matter how much you drink, but do not "make believe" with the precious Blood of our Lord. Jesus said, "All of you drink of this". The Rector would rather have to consecrate a second time than have some of God's children turn down our Lord's offering of Himself.

Since Wednesday is an Ember Day there will be Holy Eucharist also at 10 a.m. as well as on Ember Friday at 7 a.m. and Saturday at 10.

ARE YOU KEEPING YOUR LENTEN RULE ?

Flowers:at the Altar today are given in memory of Anna and Thomas Hills by their daughter, Mrs. John Bottner; also in memory of Thomas and Clara Moore by the Family.

Breakfast will be served to the three senior classes of the Church School after the eight o'clock Eucharist. Their parents are invited, also.

The executive committee of the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet Monday at 8:00 p.m.

Holy Eucharist will be offered on Wednesday at 7:00 a.m. Let us see a few more good souls make the effort for the love of the Crucified. The evening service at 8:00 p.m. will feature a color filmstrip on the celebration of Solemn Eucharist - Holy Communion with three priests, music and the full historic ceremonial. You may never see this in St. Bartholomew's, so come and see it on film.

The Vestry meets Thursday at 8:00 p.m.
in the parish house office.

The Choir rehearses after the Wednesday evening service in Lent.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will have a Quiet Day on the Feast of the Annunciation, March 25, beginning at 10:00 a.m. Bring a sandwich. The day will close about 3:00 p.m.
The conductor will be the Rev'd A.E.Chinn,
Rector of All Saints' Church, Torresdale.

Twenty copies of the Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible are dedicated for use in the Church School. They are presented by the family of ARTHUR KAUFFMAN in his memory. These Bibles will be a great help in teaching and we appreciate the gift.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's are planning a trip to historic Gloria Dei Church on April 17, Wednesday after Easter. $2.75 will pay for your bus ride and luncheon.
The trip is from 11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Please see Mrs. E. VonRohr for information.

QUESTION: What is the Shema(shuh-MAH) ?

Flowers at the Altar today are in memory of Gustav Kardevan, given by his daughter, Mrs. W. Stearn. Flowers at the Choir rail are from the funeral of Thurman Pray, lately of 6119 Cottage St., who was laid to rest yesterday. Pray for him.

Our Y.P.F. will journey to Grace Church and the Incarnation, Edgemont and Venango Sts. tonight for the Northeast Y.P.F. meeting. Evening Prayer is at 7:30.

Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 a.m. Wednesday. One more faithful person was added to the ranks last week and our young Acolytes make it! How about you? The evening service will be at 8:00 p.m. Make the sacrifice of time during Lent.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will offer a Lenten menu on Wednesday at lunch, 11:30 to 1:30.

Your indulgence is asked this morning as we make temporary provisions for music while the amplifier of the organ is at the factory for repairs. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord!

The Shema is the central credal statement of Judaism. It appears in the First Lesson at Morning Prayer. The actual verse is Deuteronomy 6:4. Look it up.

On Saturday evening occurred the death of Minnie Souders, mother of Mrs. Frank Taylor of 5449 Valley St. On Saturday morning also occurred the death of John McGrory, Priest, sometime Rector of St. Bartholomew's. In accordance with his wishes as a Priest of the Church, no viewing will be held. The Burial Office will be at the Free Church of St. John on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers you may send offerings to the endowment fund of St. John's Church, Elkhart and Emerald Sts. May their souls + and the souls of all the faithful, rest in peace. Of your charity, pray for them.

given in memory of Alice Elizabeth Neil by her daughter, Mrs. B. Gillies.

Our guest preacher at Morning Prayer is the Rev'd Frederick Powers, Chaplain for the Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. We are happy to hear from him today.

Monday is the Feast of the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary. Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 a.m. There will be a Quiet Day for women beginning at 10: a.m. and closing about 3:00 p.m. The conductor will be the Rev'd A. Edward Chinn, Rector of All Saints' Church, Torresdale.
If you will bring a sandwich for your own lunch, coffee will be provided.

The Northeast Y.P.F. executive committee will meet here Monday at 8:00 p.m.

Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 a.m. on Wednesday. The Evening service is at 8:00 p.m. and the guest speaker will be Mr. James Cameron, Lay Reader at Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg.

The Rector will preach at the Kensinton Episcopal Lenten community service at the Church of St. Mary of the Annunciation, Memphis and Willard Sts., on Friday at 8:00 p.m. The public is, of course, invited.

The Instructed Eucharist will be celebrated next Sunday at 9:45 a.m. in the church. This will be Passion Sunday, approaching the climax of Lent.

At the 11:00 a.m. Eucharist, please follow the separate folder for the palm liturgy and procession. Note that the hymn is sung responsively by choir and people.

Should the palms be spent at the 11: a.m. Eucharist before you receive one, please ask an usher after the service; palms will be taken from the Altar if needed.

The PASSION GOSPEL will be read in parts to dramatize the Story of our Lord's Passion. "Glory be to thee..." and "Praise be to thee..." will be omitted before and after the Gospel. You may join in the parts the Choir reads. We hope that this ancient way of telling the Gospel accounts of the Passion will help you to feel that you are part of the great Drama of Redemption.

A Coffee Hour will be offered by the Altar Guild following the 11:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist. Please join us downstairs.

The Y.P.F. will sing Evensong tonight at 7:30 p.m. Adults are most welcome.

Contributions for Altar flowers for the feast of Easter may be left in the plate at the door. No specific memorials are used on Easter Day.

Please consult the schedule on the bulletin board for Holy Week services, but note that the Maundy Thursday service is at 8:00 p.m. and there will be no Wednesday evening service.

Enrollment for CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION will be taken Easter Day. There will be classes for children and adults separately. It is expected of those who enroll that they will begin to attend Sunday services.

BY THY CROSS AND PASSION, GOOD LORD DELIVER US.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Flora Layton Gross by her husband and son; also in memory of Augusta E. Lewis by Mr. Alva O. Lewis; also in memory of Mary Josephine Young by Miss Marjorie Young.

The United Thankoffering is being gathered in today in preparation for the presentation service.

The Wednesday Lenten services are at 7:00 a.m. - Holy Eucharist and at 8:00 p.m.
Evening Prayer. At the evening service slides will be shown on the Passion.

The Church School Staff is scheduled to meet Thursday evening in the Rectory.

The Visiting Committee will meet on Friday at the home of Mrs. William Logan, 6138 Hegerman St.

Palms will be prepared Saturday and the Choir and Acolytes will rehearse the Liturgy for Palm Sunday.

The Vestry has rejected the offer of a set of plaques depicting the Way of the Cross; therefore they have been returned.

We have entered upon the last stages of Lent; let us press on in spirit to the great climax. Palm Sunday has much to tell us and the events of Holy Week will show us the great difference between the wisdom of man and that of God.

Palms will be distributed at all services next Sunday: 8:00 a.m.; 9:45 a.m.; 11:00 a.m.; 7:30 p.m. There will be a coffee hour after the 11:00 a.m. service.

The service on Maundy Thursday will be at 8:00 p.m. rather than at 6:30 p.m. as originally announced.

In Passiontide the glory of the Altar is veiled even as our Lord hid his glory in suffering - to be revealed in victory on that glorious Easter morn.

If you attend more than one Eucharist today it is correct to receive Communion at the first only. You will add much to reverence (and the Priest's convenience) if you will commune with open, flat right hand cradled in the left and raised to the level of the chin. When receiving the Chalice, do not attempt to grasp it till it is brought to your lip, then, if you wish, guide the base (not the cup) until you can reach the level of the liquid.

Holy Communion will again be offered next Sunday at 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. on the octave of Easter.

QUESTION FOR CHURCHMEN: Why does the Prayer Book call this feast "Easter Day" and not "Easter Sunday"? Do not labor, the answer is a simple one.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will visit historic Gloria Dei Church Wednesday. The bus leaves at 11:30 a.m.

Next Sunday there will be a corporate communion and breakfast for the three oldest classes of the Church School - 8:00 a.m.

Enrollment for CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION is taken today. See sheet in narthex. Introductory session next Sunday at 9:45.

Miss Nancy Trinkle was elected to be secretary of the Northeast Convocation Y.P.F. for the coming year. This is an honor both for her and this parish.

Confirmation instruction is now being given. See the Rector at the 9:45 service.

Wednesday is the feast of St. Philip & St. James (Prayer Book: p. 238ff). The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 and 10:00 a.m.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will meet on Wednesday. During the course of the meeting they will see a film about the Cathedral in Washington. This film will be shown a second time on next Sunday evening; the time then will be 7:30 p.m.

The Church School Staff will meet in the rectory Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m. All teachers are requested to be present.

Friday at 6:30 p.m. there will be a banquet for the shuffleboard teams here in the parish house.

Saturday at 2:00 p.m. the Northeast Y.P.F. will meet here for the start of a picnic at Washington's Crossing.

A Tabernacle for the reservation of the Holy Sacrament of the Altar has been set into the gradine. It will be dedicated in a few weeks. This provides safe keeping for the Body of Christ kept for the sick. "Lord, give us this bread always." Holy Communion for confirmed persons who are sick is always available by simply calling; It is never forced upon anyone who may not desire It.

NOTE: COFFEE HOUR DOWNSTAIRS.

This evening at 7:30 the Y.P.F. will sponsor the showing of a half-hour color motion picture "Capitol to Cathedral". This film shows our Cathedral of Saint Peter and Saint Paul in Washington, D.C. popularly known as Washington Cathedral. THIS MOTION PICTURE IS WORTH SEEING! So tear yourself from TV and join us. Refreshments will be served.

In the magazine section of today's Sunday Bulletin newspaper is an article on Bishop Hart, concerning his retirement.

The COFFEE HOUR today after the 11:00 A.M. Eucharist is given by the Church School staff. Come down and join us.

We pray today for the opening of the annual Diocesan Convention on Monday and Tuesday. The service at 8:00 P.M. Monday in Holy Trinity Church, Rittenhouse Square is open to the public. There will be a big procession and the Bishop Coadjutor will speak. The prayer for Convention is on page 36 of the Book of Common Prayer.

CONFIRMATION INSTRUCTION is now being given every Wednesday at 4:00 P.M. in the church. All those enrolled are expected.

Trinity Church at Oxford Ave. and Disston St. will hold a healing mission on Wednesday at 8:00 P.M. The Rev'd Alfred Price of St. Stephen's Church will speak. Everyone is most cordially invited.

The Vestry will meet Thursday at 8:00 P.M. in the church office.

The Visiting Committee will meet on Friday at Miss Beaton's home, 4626 Benner St.

Boy Scout Troop #140 will sponsor a spaghetti dinner Saturday evening. Tickets are available from Scouts at $1.00 & 75¢.

The annual May Fete of Episcopal Hospital will be held on the grounds May 17 and May 18. See the poster at the door for details.

To say or sing the Litany in procession about the parish boundaries was for a long time the special liturgy of the Rogation Days, sometimes called "beating the bounds". God's benediction on the newly-planted seed was invoked; this much we do today. Prayers for the Rogation Days are appointed in the Book of Common Prayer, pp. 39, 175, 261.

On the grounds of the Cathedral in Roxborough today at 4:00 p.m. a pageant will be presented and the Missionary offering of the children of the Diocese will be presented to the Bishops.

New officers, including Miss Nancy Trinkle of this parish, will be installed tonight in St. Mark's Church, 4442 Frankford Ave., as the Northeast Convocation Y.P.F. holds its last Sunday meeting of the season. There will be a Corporate Communion here June 8th.

Wednesday is a Rogation Day. There will be Holy Eucharist at 7:00 a.m.

Luncheon will be served by the Women on Wednesday from 11:30 to 1:30.

Confirmation instruction will be given Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. in the church.

Thursday is the ASCENSION OF OUR LORD, the close of Eastertide. It is still considered to be an important day on which to receive Holy Communion. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

Three classes of the Church School are making a Corporate Communion today. Their breakfast will be served downstairs.

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Herbert Harry Keighley by his daughter, Miss Grace Keighley.

The Y.P.F. invites parents tonight to Evening Prayer at 7:30 p.m. This is the last meeting for the season. Come and see the youth in action.

Monday is the NATIVITY OF ST. JOHN BAPTIST. Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 a.m. (The usual second celebration at 10 will have to be cancelled on this day.)

Saturday is the Feast of ST. PETER. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m., the usual hour for Saturday services.

Next Sunday at 9:45 a.m. the last Instructed Eucharist will be offered for the season. Adults are always welcome.

Confirmation Instruction is being given at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday. All persons who are enrolled are expected to be present.

The summer schedule of services will begin Sunday, July 7th. As in recent years, the services will be at 8:00 & 10:00 a.m. For those who are tempted to miss worship to get an early start for the shore, may we recommend Psalm 20, verse 7?

Remember the Patronal Festival will be on a Saturday this year - August 24, of course. Please mark down the day. Morning and evening services are planned with a supper after the latter.

Now that it is illegal to bring God or His revelation into public education, it is increasingly important to be sure that He is evident in the home, both in precept and example. Only living faith can be passed on.

Congratulations and Godspeed to all who are graduating from schools at this time. Remember, when learning dies, so does the spirit. Wisdom is God's best gift.

on page 263. Holy Eucharist will be offered at 8:00 a.m. The city-wide service will be in historic Old Christ Church, 2nd Street above Market, at 10:00 a.m. This is not only a national holiday, but one of special interest to Philadelphians. How long has it been since you have seen the State House (Independence Hall)? Have your children seen it? How about Christ Church where the American Episcopal Church was founded? In these perilous times it is good to return to the sites of our nation's history.

Next Sunday the summer schédule begins:

8:00 a.m. Our year-around service of Holy Communion.

10:00 a.m. A "Family Service. Holy Communion or Morning Prayer with Sermon. A special class for children. NO Church School.

This schedule will be in effect from July 7 to September 1 inclusive.

The PARISH FESTIVAL will be Saturday,
August 24. Services will be at 7:00 a.m., 10:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. with supper after the latter. Mark the date and plan to come.

Confirmation Instruction is being given on Wednesday at 4:00 p.m.

Don't take a vacation from God. That has a way of becoming permanent. Read on page 291 in the Book of Common Prayer, lines 16 to 20.

To emphasize the sacred character of their service, the members of the Altar Guild formally take the vows which are implicit in their devotion to the care of the Altar. This service will immediately precede the Sung Eucharist, after the Procession has entered. Follow the rite on the opposite page.

ADMISSION OF ALTAR GUILD MEMBERS

(The People may be seated.)

SPONSOR: Reverend Father, I present unto you these persons to be admitted to the Office of Sacristan.

Priest: Are the persons whom you present duly prepared by purity of life, regular attendance at Church and knowledge of their duties, to exercise their ministry to the honour of God and the edifying of the Church?

SPONSOR: I believe them so to be.

Priest: Dearly beloved in Christ, who desire to be admitted to the Office of Sacristan in this Church, are you so convinced that the work of this ministry is so important that, while you are appointed thereto, you should be diligent in performing the same?

ANSWER: I AM SO CONVINCED.

Will you try faithfully and reverently to execute the duties of your Office to the best of your ability, as unto the Lord and not unto men?

ANSWER: I WILL TRY TO DO SO.

Will you try to live in accordance with the holiness of this Office?

ANSWER: I WILL TRY, WITH GOD'S HELP.

May the Lord guide and bless you in the doing of this work.

(Here all standing read antiphonally Psalm 43 after which People are seated, A.G. kneels.)

The Lesson: I Chronicles 9:26

The blessing of Altar Guild pins.

ADMISSION: I admit you to the Office of Sacristan in this Church; and I give you this Purificator as a token of your ministry; in the Name + of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Ye shall keep charge of the sanctuary, and of the Altar. In his temple doth everything speak of his honor.

ANSWER: HOLINESS BECOMETH THINE HOUSE FOREVER.
(Prayers, Kyrie and Lord's Prayer.)

Flowers at the Altar today are given in memory of Mary Jane Greenwood by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw and son. Flowers are also given by Mrs. William Hazelett in memory of her mother, Elizabeth Cook.

Mr. Edward Holland is convalescing at his home, 4112 Howell St. after surgery. Mr. England Powell is in Frankford Hospital. Please pray for them. Mr. Fred Wismann is improving in health, also.

Confirmation Instruction is being given at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday. Those who are enrolled should be present.

Quoted from a former Methodist minister who is now preparing for the priesthood: "The LITURGY seems to me a great asset to the Church; through it, rich treasures of classic prayers and centuries of experience are made available to the worshipper. In my former allegiance, I found that inevitably I slipped into a repeated ritual from habit; my brief time in the Church has shown me that the services are in fact more varied and more thorough in coverage than when nearly all the prayers were of my own making. The Episcopal Church teaches all aspects of the Gospel, whereas many so-called 'Gospel Churches' in practice teach only a few favorite themes."

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Appreciate your heritage! So many people think it is worth a high price to participate in it.)

There will be a meeting of those who are working on the autumn bazaar Monday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The Patronal Festival will be observed on Saturday, August 24 with services at 7 a.m., 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. with supper.

on; in memory of Elva and Frank Wilson by Mrs. Elva Bailey; in memory of Wilmer Castor.

Our guest organist today is a teacher of music, Paul Martin, B.S. Mr. Martin is a graduate of Susquehanna University and is at present taking graduate courses at Temple.
He has taught music in New Jersey schools.

Our parish festival will be Saturday,
August 24th, with services at 7:00 a.m., 10:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Supper will be served after the evening service.

The Anglican Congress opens in Toronto August 13. This is only the third such Congress. It will bring together delegates from all the dioceses of the Anglican Communion throughout the world. The purpose of the Congress will be to work out a common mind concerning our world mission in this nuclear age. Please pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit on this gathering.

The summer schedule will be in effect until after September 1st. The hours of service are 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. only.

Don't take a vacation from God. That has a way of becoming a permanent separation.
Worship must be a part of your life, not a seasonal activity. And if you think it's hot here. . . well, think about it!

"Day by day we magnify thee; And we worship thy Name ever, world without end."
- from the Te Deum, p. 11

In the order of service, "page" refers to the Book of Common Prayer and "hymn" or "# " to the Hymnal. Both books are in pews.

The children's lesson today will be the coming of the children of Israel to the land of Jericho.

Following the Sung Eucharist there will be a brief meeting of the Patronal Festival committee in the Rectory.

The Y.P.F. will hold a special meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. in order to work on the mailing for the festival. Refreshments will be served.

Tuesday is the Feast of the TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST. You may read about it in the Gospel for the day on page 248 of the Book of Common Prayer. (The expression "an eight days" is what we now call an "octave" or one full week, counting the first and last days.) This important feast day will be celebrated with two offerings of the Holy Eucharist at 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Let us have some worshippers "on the mountain"!

The Visiting Committee will meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Bernice Gillies, 4218 Howell St.

Confirmation Instruction has been recessed until September 18th.

Pray for the Anglican Congress to open in Toronto on August 13th.

world-wide Anglican Communion, will convene in Toronto, Ontario, Canada on August 13 and meet until August 23. Please pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit on their work.

+ THE CONGRESS PRAYER +

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, we pray thee to bless the Anglican Congress when it assembles in Toronto for counsel and mutual help in the work of thy Holy Church. Grant that in our Anglican Communion throughout the world, we may be faithful to the trust which thou hast committed to us, and may thy Holy Spirit enkindle our zeal and strengthen our service, until all tongues confess and bless thee, and the sons of men love thee and serve thee in peace, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Y.P.F. will go to Holiday Lake, N.J. on Saturday for swimming.

The PARISH FESTIVAL will be held Saturday August 24. Please return your reservation card. Due to mechanical difficulties, we were not able to mimeograph your return card.
Please tell us how many are coming for supper,
your name address and new "Zip Code" number.
The Holy Eucharist will be celebrated twice on the feast day for all to make their Holy Communion.

"NOT UNTO US, O LORD, NOT UNTO US, BUT UNTO THY NAME GIVE THE PRAISE!"

In the absence of the Rector, the celebrant of the Eucharist is the Rev'd Edward Loeffler, assistant priest of St. Mark's Church, Frankford. We are happy to have him with us again. Father Loeffler has kindly offered to stand by for pastoral ministrations during the absence of the Rector. You may telephone him at St. Mark's Church - JE 5-0635. Please call him rather than some other clergyman.

Mr. Rutherford Hargrave conducts Morning Prayer today. His license as Lay Reader in the Diocese of Pennsylvania entitles him to do this with certain deletions as noted in the order of service. The address he reads is from a volume called Red Letter Days by Harry N. Hancock, published by Longmans, Green & Co. in 1956.

The PARISH FESTIVAL is Saturday of this week. If you have not returned your reservation card, please do so today. Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:00 and 10:00 a.m. Evensong will be sung at 6:00 p.m. with the supper following. Come and worship.

Please continue to pray for the Anglican Congress now in session in Toronto, closing August 23. Come, Holy Spirit, enlighten us!

Next Sunday is the last day for the present summer sceudule.

This issue of "Our Church Times" is given in memory of Mamie MacMullin, mother of Mrs. Jennie Kauffman, by the family.

Today the celebration of the Patronal Festival is echoed in the Liturgy, although the proper day was kept yesterday.

We are happy to have as our guest organist once again, Mr. Paul Martin, B.S., a graduate of Susquehanna University and a post-graduate student of music at Temple University. Mr. Martin has taught music in New Jersey public schools.

Mr. Albert Meyer (2077 Kennedy St.) is in Wills Eye Hospital after surgery. Please pray for him.

The Women of St. Bartholomew's will begin the autumn season with Holy Communion at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday followed by their meeting. Mrs. Alyce Diaz is new president.

The Church School Staff will meet at 8:00 p.m. Thursday in the Rectory to plan for the re-opening of the Church School.

There will be no service in the church on Labor Day.

Mr. Albert Meyer is still in Wills Eye
Hospital after surgery (room 637).

Herbert Fisher, late of 6239 Gillespie
St., not a member of this parish, was laid to rest yesterday. The Burial Office was said at Robinson's on Torresdale Ave. Of your charity, pray for him and for his family. May he + rest in peace.

As indicated above the CHURCH SCHOOL will re-open next Sunday, September 8th.
Please remind all children of the service at 9:45 a.m. Let us get off to a good start.

The new stained glass window which was installed in the sanctuary will be dedicated in the autumn. Watch for notice of this.

The first INSTRUCTED EUCHARIST for the season will be celebrated Sunday, September 22 at 9:45 a.m. This will be "Ante-Communion" only, without holy communions.

NOTES ON TODAY'S PSALM (#104). This psalm is one often used for Rogation processions in the fields. Some troublesome verses are v.4 - nothing to do with clergy; verse indicates that wind and fire serve God.

v.18 - "conies" are badgers. God's creatures are found even burrowed in the earth.

v.21 - lions are not cruel to kill, but do so in a God-appointed plan to get food.

v.26 - "leviathan" is a sea monster, often used as a symbol of evil, which, while very strong, is finally subdued by good. It is pronounced 'lev-EYE-a-than'.

P R A Y E R

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who know-est the needs of thy Church in every place; look graciously, at this time, upon the people of this Diocese, and so guide and govern the clergy and laity, that they may faithfully and wisely make choice of a fit person to serve as BISHOP COADJUTOR; and to him who shall be ordained to this holy function, give thy grace and heavenly benediction that he may serve before thee, and by thy blessing, bring many souls to the joys of thy eternal Kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
